The New Rebel Iron-Clads in France.

One Vessel Launched---Others in Rapid Progress.

The French Authorities Deny that They Are for the Rebels.

Correspondence, Official and Unofficial, on the Subject.

OUR PARIS CORRESPONDENCE.

A Rebel Pirate Launched at Bordeaux—The Georgia at the Same Port—The Rappahannock at Calais.

PARIS, Tuesday, March 29, 1864.

One of the vessels built at Bordeaux by M. ARMAN Deputy in the Corps Legislatif, for the Confederate Government, was launched on Thursday last, and shows herself on the water to be a most beautiful specimen of naval architecture. An English vessel is lying in the same port with all the necessary equipments on board for the new vessel, the articles having been put on board the English vessel at Havre. The new vessel will not be ready to sail yet for some weeks, and she is audaciously announced in advertisements as being "up" for Shanghai. M. ARMAN, however, has been compelled by the French Government to give his word that none of the vessels he is building shall pass from his into Confederate hands, or, in a general way, that no trouble shall come to the Government from these vessels. It is on this promise of M. ARMAN that the French and American Governments rely, and on which permission is granted for the continuance of the work on them. The two iron-clads will not be ready for launching yet for three months, but the other three wooden vessels will soon follow their consorts into the water. It is feared that by some indirect means these vessels may finally pass into Confederate hands.

The Georgia, which left the French port of Cherbourg over a month ago, has just put into the port of Bordeaux, and on Saturday the officers of this vessel visited the newly-launched Confederate ship. It is yet unexplained why the Georgia was allowed to re-enter a French port, contrary to the new regulation requiring an interval of three months to elapse between each entry, but I believe this new regulation makes an exception to the three months' rule in favor of coaling; but for this purpose only twenty-four hours is allowed, and the Georgia seems to be making more than a twenty-four hours' stay at Bordeaux.

The distance from Bordeaux to the sea is seventy miles, and the occasion seemed so good a one to entrap the Georgia, that the American Minister at Paris immediately telegraphed Capt. WINSLOW of the fact, and the Kearsage, which lately has been stationed in the channel, has by this time probably arrived off the mouth of the Gironde. The twenty-four hours' start will be here allowed, of course, to the Georgia, but the exit from the river is narrow in comparison to other harbors, and it is easier to keep informed of the movements of the blockaded vessel in a river than in an open bay.

The French Government, finding that there was an intention on the part of the Confederates to run the Rappahannock out of the port of Calais and to go to sea, as they did at Sheerness, with French leave, have inclosed the vessel in a dock, and placed a man-of-war in front of it.

MALAKOFF.

THE FRENCH PRESS ON THE IRON-CLADS—OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS.

The following article, which we translate from the columns of the Opinion Nationale (Paris) throws considerable light upon the question of the construction of rebel iron-clad cruisers in the ports of France, and in fact leaves but little doubt that the Government of the Emperor at least knows more of the matter than it chooses to tell:

From the Opinion Nationale, March 28.

Lord JOHN RUSSELL has repeatedly declared in the House of Lords, that the construction of the Alabama and several other Confederate cruisers, was a scandal and a disgrace to England. Whether in this he expressed his real sentiments, or merely sought to excuse the feeling of extreme irritation manifested by the United States against England, it is at least certain that, for a year past, he has shown himself inflexible in reference to the construction of these vessels.

Consequently the Confederates have directed their applications to France, and, by way of a beginning, have ordered a whole squadron, guns, shell, ball, &c., and Messrs. ARMAN, of Bordeaux, and VORUZ, of Nantes, more audacious than Mr. LAIRD, of Liverpool, have undertaken to deliver, at the expiration of ten months, several vessels of war, completely equipped and ready for action. These vessels were, ostensibly, intended for the establishment of a line between China, Japan, and San Francisco, but their real destination was soon discovered, and Mr. DAYTON hastened to enter his protest before M. DROUYN DE LHUYS, the moment he succeeded in getting possession of undeniable proofs.

The principal accusatory documents, to the number of ten, were transmitted to M. DROUYN DE LHUYS on the 22d of September, 1863. The first, in order of date, is a letter addressed on the 10th of June last, by Mr. ARMAN to Mr. VORUZ. Mr. ARMAN acknowledges having received from Mr. BULLOCK, a Captain in the Confederate navy, and special agent of the Richmond Government, the sum of 720,000 francs, the amount of the first fifth due for two vessels he is constructing at Bordeaux, while, at the same time, Mr. VORUZ is causing two others to be constructed at Nantes by Messrs. JOLLET, BABIN and DUBIGEON. These four vessels had been in progress of construction since the 15th of April, 1863, and by the 1st of June Mr. ARMAN had asked authority of the Minister of the Marine to arm them.

Documents Nos. 2 and 3 are two letters, one of the 14th and the other of the 17th July last, in which Mr. VORUZ, Sr., informs Mr. VORUZ, Jr., that Capts. BULLOCK and ARNOUX, accompanied by Mr. ERLANGER, had departed on the 13th of July for Bordeaux, and that they had signed a contract, by virtue of which Mr. ARMAN undertakes to build two iron-clad vessels in addition to the four not iron-clad. Moreover, it appears from these two letters that they were actively engaged in the foundries of Mr. VORUZ, Sr., in casting, on account of the Confederate Government, guns, ball and shell. A certain number of these cannon and ball had been ordered by Mr. BLAKELY, of London, but the rest were specially intended for the outfit of vessels in progress of construction at Nantes and Bordeaux. If there yet remained any doubt in the matter, it would be dispelled by letters 8 and 8, addressed by Messrs. ARMAN and VORUZ to the Minister of the Marine.

The French Government, having only very inaccurate information relative to the destination of these vessels and the use to be made of their armaments, had furnished Mr. VORUZ with every facility desirable for the fulfillment of his contract.

On the 8th of October, Mr. DAYTON brought to the attention of M. DROUYN DE LHUYS fresh proofs, among others a copy of a contract signed July 16, 1863, wherein Mr. ARMAN agrees to Mr. BULLOCK to construct two iron-clad vessels, and a copy of an agreement, dated on the 17th of September, in which M. VORUZ promises to furnish Capt. BULLOCK with 56 pieces of cannon and 12,000 shell.

At length, in a last letter not less explicit than the preceding ones, Mr. ARMAN proposes to Mr. MAURY, "Rear-Admiral of the Confederate States of America," to construct, on short notice, six new iron-clad gunboats, according to the plans communicated to him by Mr. JAMESON, and he agrees, moreover, to furnish in one month after the signature of the contract, proof that he has in hand the authority necessary for the delivery of the armament destined to be placed on board of the gunboats.

After having taken note of all the documents we have cited, M. DROUYN DE LHUYS addressed to Mr. DAYTON the following dispatch:

PARIS, Oct. 15, 1863.

SIR: You have done me the honor to address me with the purpose of calling my attention to agreements that have been entered into in France for the construction and delivery of several vessels-of-war to the seceded States. You have expressed the desire that the official authorization accorded for the armament of these vessels might be withdrawn, and that the Government of the Emperor might take such measures as it should deem advisable to prevent the completion and delivery of the vessels in question. I lost no time in mentioning this matter to my colleague of the Department of the Marine, commending it particularly to his attention. I think I cannot do better than to transmit to you, a copy of the reply he has addressed to me. The only information received by the Department of the Marine up to that moment, in relation to the operations in question, was not, as you will perceive, of a nature to admit of arresting them. It is then only by the information which he shall obtain by the aid of the documents that you have brought to my notice that Monsieur, the Count DE CHASSELOUP-LAUBAT shall be able to judge of the measures to be taken conformably with our declaration of neutrality.

Accept the assurances, &c.,

DROUYN DE LHUYS.

Then follows the letter of the Minister of the Marine to M. DROUYN DE LHUYS:

"MONSIEUR LE MINISTRE AND DEAR COLLEAGUE: You did me the honor to communicate to me, on the 25th of September last, a copy, with its accompanying papers, of a letter of the Minister of the United States at Paris, relating to the agreements concluded by Messrs. ARMAN and VORUZ for the construction and delivery of several vessels of war to the Confederate States. In calling my attention to the gravity of this matter, you express regret that my department should not have thought proper to come to an understanding with the Department of Foreign Affairs before giving to Mr. ARMAN the authority to arm his vessels with twelve 30-pounders. As to the authority asked for by Mr. ARMAN, which was indispensable to him, according to the terms of the ordinance of July 12, 1847, I did not think that I ought to refuse it, after having received his declaration, as proven by his correspondence with my department, that the vessels in progress of construction in his ship-yards were destined for service in the China seas and in the Pacific, between China, Japan and San Francisco.

I could not, after this declaration, and knowing that the vessels of commerce which navigate that portion of the globe, are always furnished with a certain armament for defence against pirates, I could not, I say, deny the request of Mr. ARMAN nor refuse to Mr. VORUZ the authority to cast the cannon destined to form such armament. This latter authorization was in consequence of that given to the builder to furnish his vessels with artillery.

My department, in this matter, has conformed to precedents. It could only rely upon the declaration of Messrs. ARMAN and VORUZ, and could not be held responsible for illegal operations. I am, however, about to call upon Messrs. ARMAN and VORUZ for explanations in reference to the fact you have mentioned to me, and you may rest assured, Monsieur and dear colleague, that the Department of the Marine will continue, as it has hitherto done, to neglect nothing that may be needful in accordance with the desire of the Emperor and the declaration of his Government to ensure the observance of the strictest neutrality in all that relates to the war which now desolates America.

Accept, &c.,

COUNT P. DE CHASSELOUP-LAUBAT."

Messrs. ARMAN and VORUZ, again interrogated by the Minister of the Marine, denied the existence of the documents transmitted by Mr. DAYTON to M. DROUYN DE LHUYS, and, persisting in their first declaration, once more affirmed that the vessels in progress of construction at Nantes and Bordeaux were destined for the Chinese Seas. But the proofs which they, in their turn, were required to furnish were apparently inconclusive, since, upon the 22d of October, M. DROUYN DE LHUYS wrote to Mr. DAYTON the following letter:

PARIS, Oct. 22, 1863.

SIR: I have the honor to announce to you that the Minister of the Marine has just informed Mr. VORUZ that the authorization to arm four vessels in progress of construction at Nantes and Bordeaux has been withdrawn from him. Mr. ARMAN has also been notified, and his attention has been called to the responsibility he incurs in committing acts which are in opposition to our declaration of June 10, 1861.

These measures testify, Sir, to the scrupulous care applied by the Government of the Emperor to the observance of a strict neutrality. It is in order to give to your Government a renewed proof of our disposition in this respect that we have not hesitated to take into consideration the information, the authenticity of which you have affirmed to me.

Accept, &c., DROUYN DE LHUYS.

One might believe that this last letter of M. DROUYN DE LHUYS terminated the diplomatic difficulty which we have just summed up, and, indeed, for a month or two the construction of the iron-clad vessels and those not iron-clad was suspended; but if we are correctly informed, the work has, long since, been resumed, and two, at least, of these vessels are ready for delivery to the Confederate agents.

DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF.

Arrival of the Creole—Affairs on the Rio Grande.

The steamer Creole, from New-Orleans 6th, has arrived. Her news is mostly anticipated via Cairo.

Admiral FARRAGUT was in the city.

The Era stated that the Liberals, under CORTINAS, had defeated VIDAURRI at Monterey, Mexico.

French war vessels were taking soundings at the mouth of the Rio Grande.

CORTINAS had returned to Matamoras, and expressed his determination to defend it to the last extremity.

A force had been sent to Bagdad, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, to oppose the French, and throw up defensive works.

Ten thousand bales of cotton had been ferried over the river at Eagle Pass within a month, and were being hauled down to Matamoras for shipment.

At New-Orleans cotton had advanced 2 cents. Middling scarce at 71 cents. Sugar and molasses higher.

The bark Cephas Stewart was ashore on the bar at the mouth of the Mississippi.

The prize schooner Mary C. Benton had arrived from off Galveston.

Seven negroes had been tried for the murder of the family of Mr. NEFF, near Port Hudson, in January, and three of them condemned to be hung.

FROM NEW-ORLEANS VIA CAIRO.

CAIRO, Wednesday, April 13.

The following dispatch per steamer Olive Branch failed to reach your correspondent's hands till to-day:

NEW-ORLEANS, Wednesday, April 6.

The ceremonies of dedicating Liberty Hall, named and selected by Gen. BANKS, took place this morning. They were most impressive. Rev. J. P. NEWMAN, of New-York, was Master of Ceremonies.

The Louisiana Constitutional Convention met at Liberty Hall, at 12 o'clock. ALFRED SHAW was chosen President pro tem. A Committee on Credentials was selected, and the Convention adjourned till 12 o'clock to-morrow.

A brilliant fight recently took place at Pensacola between the Thirtieth and Fourteenth Cavalry and the Fifty-seventh Alabama Cavalry, (?) in which the rebels were almost annihilated in a hand-to-hand encounter with sabres.

Mrs. Gen. BANKS, assisted by the ladies of New-Orleans, designs giving a series of tableaux at the Opera House on Wednesday, for the benefit of the soldiers' wives and widows.

Maximilian and His Interminable Difficulties.

HALIFAX, Thursday, April 14.

The R. M. steamship Asia, Capt. MOODIE, which left Liverpool at 3 P. M. of the 2d, and Queenstown 3d, arrived at Halifax at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The Asia has fifty-seven passengers for Halifax and forty-four for Boston.

She has had heavy weather nearly the entire passage, and was eighteen hours off the harbor in a fog.

The steamship Bavaria, from New-York, arrived at Southampton on the evening of the 1st inst.

The steamship Australasian, from New-York, arrived at Queenstown on the morning of the 2d inst.

The Federal steamer Kearsage has gone into Victoria Dock, London, for repairs.

The latest advices from the steamer City of New-York are more encouraging. Divers report that with the exception of one hole underneath her, near forward bunker, she appears to have sustained slight injury. She continues firm and upright on the rock, and it is hoped, if the weather continues favorable, she will again be got afloat. Preparations to lift her are almost complete, and the weather at present is excellent for the work. More of her cargo has been got out.

The Inman line has been reinforced by the purchase of a new steamer, to be called the City of Dublin. She is 2,000 tons burden, and will immediately be put on the line.

AMERICAN TOPICS.

THE REBEL PIRATES.

The Paris correspondent of the London Globe says: "The rebel cruiser Georgia is refitting in the Garonne, not being allowed to anchor in front of Bordeaux, in consequence of the port regulations excluding ships with powder on board.

It was reported that the Georgia had burnt the ship William Crampton, of New-York, recently from Bordeaux, but the crew of the Georgia would give no information on the subject.

The correspondence relative to the Chesapeake case is published, but it adds nothing of material interest to what is already known.

In this correspondence Mr. SEWARD apologizes for any violation of British jurisdiction, and acknowledges the justice and impartiality of the British officials and of the court of Nova Scotia.

Lord LYONS accepts of the apology in the spirit that it is offered, and rejoices that the matter is settled in a manner honorable to both parties, and calculated to improve the friendly relations between the two Powers.

ANGLO-REBEL NEWS.

The London Times has recommenced the publication of letters from its secession correspondent "S.," of Liverpool, who paints in as strong colors as ever the prospects of the rebels. He thinks that really the decisive struggle has come now, and that it is beyond the reach of gunboats.

ENGLAND.

BRITISH REVENUE.

The British revenue for the year ending March 31, was £70,208,900 pounds sterling, or within £400,000 of the preceding year, notwithstanding that more than £3,000,000 was taken off in taxation. The monthly returns continue to show a great increase in the revenue.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.

An adjourned meeting of the Atlantic Telegraph Company took place on the 1st inst. The contract with Messrs. GLASS, ELLIOTT & Co., to manufacture and lay the cable, was explained as agreed upon, and a resolution was unanimously passed approving of the contract. The Chairman predicted that within eighteen months the great work would be in successful operation.

THE MEXICAN QUESTION.

MAXIMILIAN'S DIFFICULTIES.

In regard to the Mexican question, several French journals assert that the difficulty relative to the departure of MAXIMILIAN for Mexico will shortly be arranged.

The Oesterrische Zeitung, of Vienna, says negotiations between MAXIMILIAN and the Emperor of Austria were brought to a favorable issue on the 31st, and the Archduke's formal acceptance of the Mexican crown may be expected very shortly.

It was stated that NAPOLEON sent Gen. FROSSARD to Vienna to smooth down the difficulties between MAXIMILIAN and the Emperor of Austria.

THE DANISH WAR.

THE SEIGE OF DUPPEL.

The Prussians, on the night of the 29th, succeeded in opening the first parallel before Duppel, without molestation from the Danes.

It is officially announced that the Danes occupied Horsens on the 28th.

A Trieste telegram asserts that the Austrian iron-clad Don Juan will join the fleet in the North Sea in a week.

THE CONFERENCE.

The fifth part of the correspondence relative to Denmark has been published by the British Government, and brings matters down to the present time.

It appears from this correspondence that the proposal for a conference has been accepted by all parties, and will probably, says the Times, lead to a settlement of the disputes, unless warlike passions are too much excited by events taking place before Duppel.

The Daily News says the correspondence sufficiently shows that no preparation whatever has been made for a conference; and if the Emperor NAPOLEON has only half the sagacity for which he gets the credit, he will be able easily to transform it into the Congress which he proposed last November, with the additional gratification of seeing it convened by the very statesmen who defeated it before.

REVOLT IN THE AUSTRIAN ARMY.

The London Times gives partial credit to the report of an extensive attempt at revolt among the Hungarian troops arrayed against Denmark. The Austrian army broke up from before Fredericia in an unaccountable manner, and the disaffection of the troops may have been the cause. The Times trusts that the report of the wholesale execution of the Hungarian troops is untrue.

FRANCE.

The French news is unimportant.

The Bourse was quiet at 66f. 85c. for the Rentes.

RUSSIA AND POLAND.

A review of the Imperial Guard had taken place at St. Petersburgh in honor of the anniversary of the entry of the Allies into Paris.

The Invalide Russe accuses the Wallachian Minister of openly sympathizing with and tolerating revolutionary Poles.

HUNGARY.

It was stated that the military organization of Hungary by the revolutionary party was progressing on the basis of a former regimental list of the National Guards.

Prince COUZA, under Austrian menaces, is said to have consented to take measures against the Hungarian and Polish refugees in the Principalities.

BRAZIL.

The Brazil mails had reached Lisbon, bringing the following dates:

RIO DE JANEIRO, Thursday, March 10.

COFFEE 7‖300@7‖400. Stock, 60,000 bags.

BAHIA, Sunday, March 13.

LIVERPOOL, Sunday, April 3—P. M.

The political news is unimportant.

SOUTHAMPTON, Saturday Evening, April 2.

A telegram announcing the arrival of the Ripon, with GARIBALDI on board, off Hurst Castle, is momentarily expected. On its receipt, signal guns will be fired, the town flag will be hoisted, and peals rung from the church bells. The Mayor and Corporation will receive the General at the dock, and present the address. The General and his friends will then proceed in open carriages to the residence of the Mayor, preceded by bands of music, and will be entertained by His Worship. The Mayor of Bristol and gentlemen from Newcastle, Glasgow and other towns have arrived as deputations to invite the General to visit these towns. The town is in a state of excitement, and all the hotels are filled.

The Militia Service Gazette says:

"The Channel Squadron is under orders to prepare for sea."

QUEENSTOWN, Sunday Evening, April 3.

There is no change in the position of the steamship City of New-York. She still lies firmly imbedded on Daunt's Rock. Preparations on a large scale are being made, and strong hopes are now entertained of being able to float her.

LIVERPOOL, Saturday Evening, April 2.

The Brazilian Government has accepted the mediation of Portugal in the dispute with England.

The Norwegian Storthing has been closed. The King, in his speech, said that Sweden, jointly with the other Powers, would endeavor to obtain peace, but at the same time was prepared to render assistance to Denmark against an overpowering force.

NEWS FROM THE SOUTH.

The Rebel Morgan About to Undertake a Bold Raid—Political Libels in North Carolina.

NEWBERN, N. C., Monday, April 11.

The Raleigh Confederate says: "Gen. MORGAN is about to undertake one of the boldest expeditions he has ever yet made, which, if successful, will be productive of great good to our cause."

The Confederate also says: "A very malicious libel, published at the office of the suspended Standard, under the auspices of Dr. J. T. LEACH, Congressman elect, and Mr. HOLDEN, candidate for Governor, has been put in circulation. It is styled: 'An Appendix to the Life and Times of DUNCAN K. MCRAE,' and is a reproduction of a slander issued in London by Mr. GEORGE N. SANDERS."

The editor says: "I have received a copy of the publication, and shall act upon the advice of counsel as to what tribunal I shall look for justice to myself and my accusers."

Bacon is selling in Raleigh at $5 per ℔.; butter, $6; corn, $27 50 per bushel; eggs, $3 per dozen; flour, $250 per bbl.; molasses, $30 per gallon; potatoes, $15 per bushel; salt, $1 per ℔.; sugar, $12 per ℔.

ANOTHER ATTACK ON PADUCAH.

A Surrender Demanded and Refused—One Hour to Remove the Women and Children.

CAIRO, Thursday, April 14.

Another demand was made this afternoon for the surrender of Paducah, giving one hour for the removal of women and children. Capt. HILLS declined to surrender, and prepared to meet the anticipated attack.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Thursday, April 13.

The steamer New-York returned from City Point this morning, bringing neither news nor prisoners, the water being so high in the James River as to prevent communication with Richmond.

A Richmond paper of a recent date announces the destruction of the steamer Maple Leaf by a rebel torpedo, forty miles above Jacksonville, Fla.

The sixty women and children taken up on the steamer New-York were landed at City Point, and we learn that they had to pay $75 each in Confederate money for hack-hire from that place to Petersburgh, a distance of nine miles.

The steamer Col. Rucker, Capt. BELL, arrived today from Newbern, N. C. At 7 P. M. yesterday spoke steamer Winant, searching for the disabled steamer Scott. They had spoken the steamer Arago, which reported the steamer Scott 25 miles east of Bodies Island, on the 6th inst. The steamers United States and Silas O. Pierce have also gone in search of the disabled steamer.

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE LONG EXPULSION CASE FINISHED.

A RESOLUTION OF CENSURE ADOPTED.

A Bill in the Senate to Prohibit Speculation in Gold.

Passage of the Naval Appropriation Bill.

NEBRASKA TO FORM A STATE GOVERNMENT.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TIMES.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 14.

GEN. GRANT'S MOVEMENTS.

Lieut.-Gen. GRANT has been engaged most of to-day in the War Department. He will leave to-morrow morning for the front. He seems highly pleased with the Army of the Potomac. It never was in better condition, and is eager for the conflict.

THE TAX BILL.

The Ways and Means Committee would not allow the press to have a synopsis of the new Tax Bill. It was hurried off to the printer and will not be returned before Monday.

ANOTHER GOLD BILL.

The Gold Bill attempted to be introduced from the Ways and Means Committee is intended to be prohibitary in its operations. It will not pass the House. It is similar to the old bill which the committee have had under consideration for several weeks.

ASSIGNMENT OF SURGEONS.

Surgeons J. T. HEARD and A. L. COX have been ordered to report to the Army of the Cumberland. Lieut. Col. F. P. VOLLUM, Medical Inspector United States Army, will take station at Helena, Ark., and from thence inspect within Department of Arkansas.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 14.

THE DAY'S PROCEEDINGS IN THE HOUSE.

The galleries of the House, were, if possible, more densely crowded to-day than on any previous occasion during the debate on the resolution in relation to Mr. LONG. Many ladies were accommodated in the reporters' gallery. The seats outside the bar of the House were all filled up. Some of the Senators remained throughout the entire proceedings. There were indications of bad temper on the part of several members, and all of them were evidently intensely earnest on the subject before them.

A REVIEW IN THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

Accounts from the Army of the Potomac say the Third Division of the Second Corps, commanded by Gen. BIRNEY, was reviewed to-day by Gen. HANCOCK, and presented a splendid appearance. Gen. MEADE was present, and complimented the division and its Commander. After the review, the Generals partook of refreshments with JOHN M. BOTTS, at his invitation, and afterward with Gen. BIRNEY. The day was beautiful.

THE NEW TAX BILL.

Representative MORRILL to-day reported a new Tax Bill, very long, reconstructing the machinery of the present law, remedying the defects, insuring more uniformity in the system of internal revenue to prevent evasions, and increasing the taxes generally. The further consideration of the subject was postponed until Tuesday.

THE GOLD SPECULATION BILL.

The bill reported by Senator SHERMAN to-day and by Representative STEVENS provides that all gold and silver sales termed time sales, without actual delivery, shall, on the passage of the act, be absolutely void, and the penalty for offending against the law shall be a fine of from $1,000 to $10,000, or imprisonment for one year, or both.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate, to-day, confirmed the following nominations:

Capt. John P. Hawkins, Commissary of Subsistence, U. S. A., April 13, 1863.

TO BE BRIGADIER-GENERALS.

Col. Edward A. Wilde, of the Thirty-fifth Massachusetts Volunteers, April 24, 1863.

Col. William Birney, of the Second Regiment, U. S. Colored Troops, May 22, 1863.

Col. A. L. Chetlain, of the Twelfth Illinois Volunteers, Dec. 18, 1863.

Col. William A. Pile, of the Thirty-third Missouri Volunteers, Dec. 26, 1863.

Austin Wiley, of California, to be Superintendent of Indian Affairs for the District of California, under the Act of Congress approved April 8, 1864.

John G. Pratt, of Kansas, to be Indian Agent for the Delaware Agency.

CHANGES IN NAVAL COMMANDS.

Lieut.-Commander JOHN H. RUSSELL has been detached from ordnance duty in Washington, and ordered to the command of the Cimerone, vice Commander A. K. HUGHES, awaiting orders.

Lieut.-Commander JAMES STILLWELT is detached from special duty at New-York, and ordered to the command of the Unadilla, vice Lieut.-Commander GEO. BACON, detached, awaiting orders.

MOVEMENTS OF GEN. GRANT.

Gen. GRANT was at headquarters, and in consultation with the President this morning. He is not expected to leave for the army before to-morrow.

REBELS IN THE MOUNTAINS.

A rumor prevails, but no credit is given to it, that the rebels have recently been seen in the Blue Ridge.

THE TEN-FORTY LOAN.

The amount of subscriptions reported at the Treasury Department to-day for the Ten-Forty Loan was $2,004,000.

ADMIRAL DAHLGREN AGAIN UNSUCCESSFUL.

The steamer Harvest Moon has arrived from Fortress Monroe with Admiral DAHLGREN, who has again been unsuccessful in obtaining the body of his son.

ACTING SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.

During the absence of Mr. CHASE in New-York, Hon. GEORGE HARRINGTON is acting Secretary of the Treasury.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 14.

THE FLORIDA EXPEDITION.

Mr. ANTHONY, of Rhode Island, (Union,) moved the printing of 5,000 copies of the report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, in reference to the late Florida Expedition. Adopted.

THE HUDSON'S BAY CLAIMS.

The bill to carry into effect the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, for the final settlement of the claims of the Hudson's Bay and Puget's Sound Agricultural Company, was taken up and passed.

COMMERCIAL INTERCOURSE IN INSURRECTIONARY STATES.

Mr. CHANDLER, of Michigan, (Union,) introduced a bill in addition to the several acts in relation to commercial intercourse between the loyal and insurrectionary States; providing for the collection of abandoned property; authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to designate places where the abandoned property may be sold; charging agents with the leasing of abandoned lands and the employment and general welfare of all persons formerly held as slaves within the military lines; and regarding that property as abandoned from which the owner is absent and engaged in the rebel service, the surplus proceeds, after deducting expenses under the regulations of the Secretary, to be paid into the Treasury; the prohibitions and provisions of the act of July, 1860, are extended to all commercial intercourse whatever within the military lines. Any portion of a loyal State overrun by rebel raids, or in immediate danger from them, is placed under restrictions by the act. The present mode of distributing fines and forfeitures to informers and collectors is to be changed to an award of the court decreeing the condemnation. No property taken on inland waters shall be subject to maritime prize. It authorizes the appointment of agents to purchase the products of the insurrectionary districts at a price not greater than the market value, or three-fourths value at New-York, the proceeds to be paid into the Treasury, and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to arrange the details of the management of such property. The bill was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

THE RIGHT OF SOLDIERS TO BOUNTY—RESOLUTIONS OF THE NEW-YORK LEGISLATURE.

Mr. MORGAN, of New-York, (Union,) presented the joint resolutions of the Legislature of New-York, as follows:

Resolved, That Senators and Representatives in Congress from this State be, and they are hereby requested to make all necessary exertions to secure legislative recognition by Congress of the right of all volunteers in the two years' regiments from this State who, after a service of over one year, were mustered out and honorably discharged with their respective regiments, or subsequently thereto, from the service of the United States, to receive the bounty of $100, provided and promised by the general order of the War Department of May 4, 1861, and subsequently by the Act of Congress of July 22, 1861.

LAND AID TO PACIFIC RAILROADS.

Mr. HARDING, of Oregon, (Union,) from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill granting to railroad and telegraph lines from Emporia, via Council Grove, to a point on the Pacific Branch Road near Fort Riley, alternate sections of land for ten sections on each side of the road; authorizing a change of route via Lawrence and Wallarusa Valley, to run from Lawrence to Emporia.

NEBRASKA STATE GOVERNMENT.

Mr. WADE, of Ohio, (Union,) called up the bill to enable the people of Nebraska to form a Constitution and State Government, preparatory to admission to the Union.

The bill was passed.

THE NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL.

The consideration of the Naval Appropriation Bill for the year ending June 30, 1865, was resumed.

An amendment from the Naval Committee, making an appropriation of $15,000 for a naval and marine cemetery near Philadelphia, was adopted.

The amendment of Mr. GRIMES, returning the Naval Academy to Annapolis before September, 1865, which had been adopted in Committee of the Whole, came up for a separate vote.

Mr. ANTHONY moved as a substitute for the amendment, that the Secretary of the Navy appoint a board of five naval officers to examine and report upon the most suitable place for the Naval Academy.

After considerable debate, the substitute was rejected, and the amendment of Mr. GRIMES adopted, yeas 30; nays 10.

Mr. POWELL, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) resumed his amendment of Tuesday, repealing the fishing bounties.

Mr. HARRIS, of New-York, (Union,) said he had voted for the amendment, but on the assurances of the gentleman from Ohio, (SHERMAN,) that he would propose it as an amendment to the Revenue Bill, he should now vote against it.

Mr. POWELL, on the assurances that had been made, withdrew his amendment, as he did not wish to embarrass the friends of the Navy Appropriation Bill.

The bill was then passed.

NAVAL AFFAIRS.

Mr. HALE, of New-Hampshire, (Union,) from the Naval Committee, reported the House bill fixing the date of the loss of the brig Bainbridge, and for the relief of the officers, seamen and marines of the same. Passed.

The joint resolution of thanks to Admiral PORTER was passed.

Mr. HALE presented the House joint resolution concerning officers in the navy, which was passed after amendment. The amendment authorizes only the appointment by the Secretary of the Navy of temporary Lieutenant-Commanders on the same footing as others of the grade.

Mr. HALE reported the House bill, amending the act of July 16, 1862, equalizing the grade of line officers in the navy.

After an amendment providing that no officer lower than a Commander should be retired, the bill passed.

MONTANA.

Mr. WADE reported from the Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the bill enabling the people of Montana to form a Territorial Government. The report was adopted.

The bill to charter a Masonic Hall Association in the District of Columbia, was passed.

PROHIBITION OF GOLD SPECULATION.

Mr. SHERMAN, of Ohio, (Union,) from the Finance Committee, reported a substitute for bill 106. It provides that it shall be unlawful to make any contracts for the purchase or sale, or loan, or delivery of any gold coin or bullion, or of foreign exchange at any time subsequent to making of contract or for the payment of any sum, fixed or contingent, in default of the delivery of said coin, &c. It provides, also, that none but bona-fide owners in actual possession should make a contract for the sale of gold, and forbids any banker or broker, or other person to make sale of gold coin or bullion, or foreign exchange, or to make contract for any such purchase or sale at other than their ordinary places of business. All contracts violative of the act are void. The penalties for such violation are a fine of not more than $10,000, nor less than $1,000; or imprisonment for not less than three months, nor more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

The Senate then went into Executive Session, and shortly afterward adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 14.

NIGHT SESSIONS.

Mr. WILSON, of Iowa, (Union,) asked leave to offer a resolution that, until otherwise ordered, the House will each day take a recess from 4½ till 7 o'clock, for the purpose of holding night sessions for the transaction of business.

Objection was made from the Opposition side.

THE EXPULSION OF MR. LONG.

The House resumed consideration of the resolution to expel Mr. LONG.

Mr. ROGERS, of New-Jersey, (Dem.,) opposed the resolution, contending that free speech had been recognized by the Commons of England from time immemorial. A man has a right here to advocate such doctrine as will the better secure liberty to ourselves and property. He was not here to vindicate the sentiments of the gentleman from Ohio. He did not say the day would not come when he would take the same ground, but if it did he would declare his sentiments, although the prison and the bastile should be open to receive him. We must have freedom of debate in this country, or we must bid farewell to liberty. Addressing the Republican side, he said: Don't come here to quote the example of despotism to be followed by those honest men who have come here and sworn on the Holy Bible to stand by the Constitution and country to the last. The men who, at midnight, entered the domicil of VALLANDIGHAM and bore him away from his wife and family, are among those who are destroying the rights of the people under the Constitution, and sweeping away public liberty. The fanatics and despots like BURNSIDE would go down to the grave into endless perdition, and die worse than NAPOLEON when a wreck in a rock of the ocean. There were men here who would maintain their rights. They were the representatives, not of old ABE. LINCOLN, but of the free people who sent them hither. You are not content with slandering VALLANDIGHAM and other true patriots. [Hisses.] God bless the exile! He prayed the arrow of Heaven would pierce the heart of the despot. You are bringing soldiers here to keep old ABRAHAM, King of America, from being encroached upon by JEFFERSON DAVIS, of the Southern Confederacy. This is no longer a country of Republicanism, but a monarchy and despotism. I go, he said, for a dissolution of the Union in preference to a war of extermination. This fratricidal and ruinous war should terminate. He wanted the Union which gave us prosperity and peace. He wanted the Union with Slavery if necessary, or the Union without Slavery.

Mr. COLFAX, of Indiana, (Union,) rose to demand the previous question.

Mr. PENDLETON, of Ohio, (Dem.,) said that two or three gentlemen on the opposite side desired to speak. The previous question should not be brought to bear to curtail free speech. He therefore appealed to Mr. COLFAX not to make that motion until others had been heard.

Mr. COLFAX, of Indiana, (Union,) replied that his heart was disposed to accede to the request, but public duty demanded that he should make the motion. About twenty-six speeches had been made, and both sides had been equally heard. There were fifteen members who yet desire to express their views. He called attention to the fact that JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS was expelled under the previous question, without an

THURSDAY, April 14—P. M.

We understand the Secretary of the Treasury is in town, and the following announcement for to-morrow, 15th inst., follows his arrival:

I am authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury to commence the payment of the Coupons for the Five-Twenty Bonds falling due on the 1st proximo. When full Coupons are presented in numbers of thirty (30) or more, or fractional Coupons in numbers of twenty (20) or more, they must be accompanied by a Schedule for examination. Checks will be given for them in the order they are received, as soon thereafter as the examination can be completed. Blank Schedules will be furnished upon application at the Interest desk of this office.

JOHN J. CISCO, Assistant Treasurer.

U. S. TREASURY, NEW-YORK, April 14.

The sales of Gold to the Importers, to-day, to pay Customs, amount to $1,076,000, at 165 ₩ cent. Some of the prominent speculators in Gold, and on the present highly-inflated Railway list, attempted this morning to break the force of any movement which Mr. CHASE might direct, during his presence in the City, by giving unlimited orders to half a dozen or more Brokers, to buy up Gold without limit on the street corners, and also bid up the price at the First Board of the Stock Exchange to 187@187¼ ₩ cent. Soon after the adjournment the price ran down to 174 ₩ cent., under a violent reaction, on the mere suspicion that more Gold and Exchange would come upon the market than the demand, even on speculation, would readily take without distressing the Money Market at Bank, where Greenbacks are not over-abundant. The rumor of the Street further ran that while the parties referred to were distributing their orders to buy Gold for effect, some of their late confederates in Gold, in Exchange-place, slipped out of the market, for profit. The sales of Gold at the Second Board were at 176 ₩ cent., or 1½ below yesterday afternoon. The Exchange market could not be made to sympathize with Gold in the forenoon, and closed lower than yesterday. One of the leading Banks was a seller on London, which raised the suspicion (which, for aught we know, may have foundation,) that Government Bills were in the market.

The subscriptions to the 10-40 Loan to-day were:

At First National Bank	$340,500
At Second National Bank	50,000
At Sixth National Bank	140,000
At Treasury Office	118,550
Together	$649,050

The Second National Bank (H. A. HURLBUT, President,) being located high up-town, the Bank has authorized Messrs. W. & J. O'BRIEN, Manhattan Bank Building, Wall-street, to receive subscriptions, and to allow the usual abatement of ⅛ ₩ cent. to Brokers, Bankers, Savings Banks, &c. Messrs. O'BRIEN have the bonds for prompt delivery.

The Stock Exchange was feverish through the Morning Board; but most of the Railways were fairly supported until the turn in the Gold excitement, when prices gave way 2@3 ₩ cent. and in the case of Illinois Central 8@9 ₩ cent. The steaming process applied to this last, in the morning, probably had immediate reference to the same process in Gold, and managed, it may be, by the same party, who to the effort of ruining the Government credit are about to add the work of revolution in the Illinois Central Direction. It is said the old President of the Road is to be turned out; for what particular cause, or to what end, we are not yet advised. It is possible that Mr. OSBORN would like to capitalize the remainder of the Land Mortgage, which the Company have the right to call in by paying 120 ₩ cent. for the Bonds. This would be good for the Company, but bad, perhaps, for the speculators in the Stock over 120 ₩ cent., the new creation at this rate being equal to 140,000 new shares.

The Government long 6 ₩ cents. advanced ½ ₩ cent. The 5-20's were ⅜ ₩ cent. lower than yesterday.

At 4 o'clock the following prices were made as compared with yesterday. The Railway speculation was rather steadier after the Second Board. The Mining Stocks neglected at the Board, and the new Mining schemes, in the chrysalis state, were scarcely thought of in the general excitement of the day. The demand for Money was more active than yesterday, and the feeling that speculation in Stocks as well as Gold has been carried too far for safety to Money lenders is gradually extending to the large Banks on the Street:

As far as the proceedings of the Stockholders of the Fourth National Bank, in special meeting this afternoon, had transpired, to the hour of this report, the sentiment was expressed, by nearly unanimous vote, that the whole Board of President and Directors be requested to resign, in the absence of all prospect of harmony of personal feeling or useful official action.

The following is the main part of the text of the annual report of the Michigan Southern Road for the fiscal year 1863-4, ending Feb. 29:

"During the fiscal year ending on the 29th of February, 1864, the gross earnings of the road amounted to $3,384,294 23. The operating expenses were $1,753,516 90, and the net earnings $1,630,777 33. The proportion of operating expenses to earnings was 51.80 per cent. The increase of earnings over last year was $570,562.83; of this amount $351,990 94 was for a gain on passenger, and $212,269 01 on freight earnings. During the year an old claim, secured by a mortgage on property of the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad Company was collected, yielding $58,246 04 to the treasury. There has been paid into the sinking fund $114,000 of that class of bonds, and the Commissioners now hold $764,000 of the sinking fund bonds, making the full amount due to the fund to this date. During the year the Company embraced the opportunity of selling at a premium $1,400,000 of the reserved common stock created and contemplated at the time of consolidation, the proceeds of which were sufficient for the purchase of $310,000 of ten per cent. guaranteed stock, and $1,126,000 of first and second mortgage seven per cent. bonds, making a total of $1,436,000."

We have been requested to call attention to the $1,000,000 six ₩ cent. Loan of the County of New-York "Soldiers' Bounty Fund Bonds", bids for which will be opened at the Comptroller's Office, on Saturday, the 16th inst., at 2 o'clock P. M.

"THE PEN IS MIGHTIER THAN THE SWORD."

THE GOLD PEN—THE BEST OF ALL PENS,
MORTON'S GOLD PENS,
THE BEST PENS IN THE WORLD.

On receipt of any of the following sums in Cash, the subscriber will send by return mail, or otherwise, as directed, a Gold Pen or Pens—selecting the same according to description, viz.:

GOLD PENS WITHOUT CASES.

For 25 cents, the Magic Pen; for 38 cents, the Lucky Pen; for 50 cents, the Always-Ready Pen; for 75 cents, the Elegant Pen; and for $1, the Excelsior Pen. These Pens are not numbered, but correspond in sizes to Numbers 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 respectively.

THE SAME PENS IN SILVER-PLATED EXTENSION CASES, WITH PENCILS.

For 50 cents, the Magic Pen; for 75 cents, the Lucky Pen; for $1, the Always-Ready Pen; for $1 25, the Elegant Pen, and for $1 50, the Excelsior Pen.

These are Well-Finished, Good-Writing Gold Pens, with Iridosmin Points, the average wear of every one of which will far outlast a gross of the best Steel Pens, although they are unwarranted, and, therefore, not exchangeable.

MORTON'S WARRANTED PENS.

The name "A. Morton," "Number" and "Quality," are stamped on the following Pens, and the points are warranted for six months, except against accident.

The numbers indicate size only; No. 1 being the smallest, No. 6 the largest, adapted for the pocket; No. 4 the smallest, and No. 10 the largest Mammoth Gold Pen, for the desk.

Long and medium Nibs of all sizes and qualities. Short Nibs of Numbers 4, 5, 6 and 7, and made only of first quality.

The Long and Short Nibs are fine pointed; the Medium Nibs are broad, coarse business points. The engravings are fac-similes of the sizes and styles.

GOLD PENS WITHOUT CASES.

For $0 75 a No. 1 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 3 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 a No. 2 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 3 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 25 a No. 3 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 50 a No. 4 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 3d quality.
For $1 75 a No. 5 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 2d quality.
For $2 25 a No. 6 Pen; $2 75 a No. 7 Pen; $3 25 a No. 8 Pen; $4 a No. 9 Pen; $5 a No. 10 Pen; all 1st quality.

THE SAME GOLD PENS, IN SILVER EXTENSION CASES, WITH PENCILS.

For $1 50 a No. 1 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 3 Pen, 2d quality.
For $1 75 a No. 2 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 3 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 3d quality.
For $2 a No. 3 Pen 1st quality; or a No. 4 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 3d quality.
For $2 50 a No. 4 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 5 Pen, 2d quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 3d quality.
For $3 a No. 5 Pen, 1st quality; or a No. 6 Pen, 2d quality.
For $3 50 a No. 6 Pen, 1st quality.

GOLD PENS, ALL FIRST QUALITY, IN SILVER-MOUNTED DESK-HOLDERS.

For $2 00 a No. 4 Pen; for $2 25 a No. 5 Pen; for $2 75 a No. 6 Pen; for $3 50 a No. 7 Pen.
For $4 a No. 8 Pen; for $5 a No. 9 Pen; and for $6 a No. 10 Pen.

The "1st Quality" are pointed with the very best Iridosmin Points, carefully selected, and none of this quality are sold with the slightest imperfection which skill and the closest scrutiny can detect.

The "2d Quality" are superior to any Pens made by him previous to the year 1860.

The "3d Quality" he intends shall equal in respect to Durability, Elasticity and Good Writing Qualities (the only true considerations) any Gold Pens made elsewhere.

In regard to the Cheap Gold Pens, he begs leave to say that, previous to operating his New and Patented Machines, he could not have made as Good Writing and Durable Pens for the price, had the Gold been furnished gratuitously.

Parties ordering must in all instances specify the "Name" or the "Number" and "Quality" of the Pens wanted, and be particular to describe the kind they prefer—whether stiff or limber, coarse or fine.

All remittances sent by mail in registered letters are at my risk; and to all who send twenty cents (charge of registering,) in addition to the price of goods ordered, will guarantee their safe delivery.

Parties sending Gold or Silver will be allowed the full premium on the day received.

TO CLUBS.—A discount of 10 per cent. will be allowed on sums of $12, of 15 per cent. on $24, and of 20 per cent. on $40, if sent to one address at one time.

Address, A. MORTON,
No. 25 MAIDEN-LANE, NEW-YORK.

PROPOSALS

PROPOSALS FOR FORAGE.

CHIEF QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE,
WASHINGTON DEPOT, Dec. 8, 1863.

SEALED PROPOSALS are invited by the undersigned for supplying the United States Quartermaster's Department, at Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Md., Alexandria and Fort Monroe, Va., or either of these places, with Hay, Corn, Oats and Straw.

Bids will be received for the delivery of 5,000 bushels of corn or oats, and 50 tons of hay or straw, and upward.

Bidders must state at which of the above-named points they propose to make deliveries, and the rates at which they will make deliveries thereat, the quantity of each article proposed to be delivered, the time when said deliveries shall be commenced, and when to be completed.

The price must be written out in words on the bids.

Corn to be put up in good stout sacks, of about two bushels each. Oats in like sacks, of about three bushels each. The sacks to be furnished without extra charge to the Government. The hay and straw to be securely baled.

The particular kind or description of oats, corn, hay or straw, proposed to be delivered, must be stated in the proposals.

All the articles offered under the bids herein invited will be subject to a rigid inspection by the Government Inspector before being accepted.

Contracts will be awarded from time to time to the lowest responsible bidder, as the interest of the Government may require, and payment will be made when the whole amount contracted for shall have been delivered and accepted.

The bidder will be required to accompany his proposal with a guarantee, signed by two responsible persons, that in case his bid is accepted, he or they will, within ten days thereafter, execute the contract for the same, with good and sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to the amount of the contract, to deliver the forage proposed in conformity with the terms of this advertisement; and in case the said bidder should fail to enter into the contract, they to make good the difference between the offer of said bidder and the next lowest responsible bidder, or the person to whom the contract may be awarded.

The responsibility of the guarantors must be shown by the official certificate of a United States District Attorney, Collector of Customs, or any other officer under the United States Government, or responsible person known at this office.

All bidders will be duly notified of the acceptance or rejection of their proposals.

The full name and Post-office address of each bidder must be legibly written in the proposal.

Proposals must be addressed to Brigadier-General D. H. Rucker, Chief Depot Quartermaster, Washington, D. C., and should be plainly marked "Proposals for Forage."

Bonds, in the sum equal to the amount of the contract, signed by the contractor and both of his guarantors, will be required of the successful bidder or bidders upon signing the contract.

Blank forms of bids, guarantees and bonds, may be obtained upon application at this office.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED at the office of the Minnesota Central Railway Company, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, until the 5th day of May, 1864, at 12 o'clock noon, for the grading, masonry and bridging on the branch line of said road from Mendota to St. Paul.

The work comprises a large amount of sand-rock excavation, and the masonry and superstructure of a bridge across the Mississippi River.

Notice is hereby given that on or about the same date, the work of completing the grading, masonry and bridging on the main line of said road, from Farribault to the Iowa State line, (57) fifty-seven miles, will be contracted for.

The work upon the branch line is of a very heavy character, and is worthy the attention of responsible contractors.

Payments will be made monthly, in cash, and bids received for the work in small or large quantities, the company reserving the right to reject any bids not satisfactory as to price or as to the responsibility of the parties making the same.

For information with regard to said work, application may be made to the Company's Chief Engineer, at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

S. CHAMBERLAIN, President.
D. C. SHEPARD, Chief Engineer.

FOR SALE—TIMBER LOT OF 674 ACRES.—ONE of the most valuable timber lots in this State, within 3½ miles of canal and railroad, near the head of Seneca Lake; easy of access, and surrounded by highly improved farms, worth from $50 to $80 per acre. The land is heavily timbered, and is of better soil and surface than any other similar body in the State. The property has on it a steam saw mill and shingle machine in running order, four dwellings and two barns. Title perfect; price $50 per acre. Very favorable terms will be made with a party who desires to lumber it, or it will be exchanged in part for other first-class property near New-York, or for well located Western lands at cash prices. W. S. BARNES, No. 362 Broadway, third floor, rear.

GOOD OPPORTUNITY—FOR SAFE INVESTMENT of money in real estate rapidly growing in value. For sale, 16⅜ acres of land, eligibly situated in the Village of Newburgh, N. Y., on which are a good and convenient dwelling-house, tenant-house, two barns, and a quantity of fruit trees and grapevines. But this land is chiefly valuable for building lots, for which there is a great demand in our rapidly growing town. Owner is so occupied in mercantile business that he cannot attend to division of premises and sale thereof in parcels, and is willing to sell same in bulk, at a low price, and on favorable terms as to payment. For particulars inquire of HASBROUCK & TAYLOR, Attorneys, Newburgh, N. Y.

FOR SALE—AN ELEGANT DWELLING IN 15th-st., near 5th-av.—The house is a double one, and contains library, dining-room, drawing-rooms and boudoir on first floor; stairs in side hall at right angles with main entrance, five rooms and large bath room on second floor, five rooms (three large) on the third floor; light and roomy kitchen and separate laundry, coal cellar, furnace-room, &c., in basement. The house is furnished in a very costly and tasteful manner, and is, indeed, an unusually fine residence. House and furniture are offered for sale, and possession can be had at a fortnight's notice.

A large amount can remain on bond and mortgage, at six per cent. Apply to HOMER MORGAN, No. 2 Pine-st.

TO IRON FOUNDERS AND MANUFACTURERS, DESIROUS OF CHANGING LOCATION OR STARTING ANEW.—Your attention is called to Elizabethport, New-Jersey, as being the best point near New-York, on account of the low cost of coal, iron and lumber, low taxes, and offering all the advantages of the City. Please examine the place before locating elsewhere. Lots for sale on very favorable terms. For particulars apply to COOLEY & HEIDRITTER, Agents, Elizabethport, or E. R. KELLOGG, 139 Pearl-st., N.Y.

DOCK PROPERTY FOR SALE OR TO LEASE—Situated at Williamsburgh, two blocks south of the ferries to Roosevelt and Grand sts., between South 9th and South 10th sts., being 150 feet on 1st-st., running down to the East River over 360 feet, with wharf 150 feet front, of 20 feet depth at low water, and a return dock of 175 feet, containing about 22 lots of ground; is well calculated for a sugar refinery, or any other manufacturing business. Inquire of EVANDER BERRY, No. 40 1st-st., opposite.

FOR SALE—THE LARGE AND VALUABLE property located on New-Bowery, running through to Nos. 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 Roosevelt-st., containing over four full lots, and suitable for manufacturing or other purposes. This property will be sold very low, to wit, $35,000, being the assessed value for taxes. Apply to A. M. LYON, No. 23 Wall-st.

FOR SALE—AT RAHWAY, N. J., A TWO-STORY frame house, with kitchen extension, a corner lot, surrounded by shade trees; a good garden, currants, gooseberries, strawberries and Lawton blackberries in abundance; dwarf pear trees, grapevine, &c.; near the depot; twenty-six trains to and from New-York daily. Apply in office No. 36 Harrison-st., New-York.

VALUABLE CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE.—The entire block on 1st av., running from 2d to 3d-st., and formerly occupied by the soap and candle manufactory of Allan Hay & Co., for sale on favorable terms. Apply to ALLAN HAY, No. 33 Broad-st., or to Messrs. A. H. MULLER, P. R. WILKINS & CO., No. 5¾ Pine-st.

FLUSHING, L. I.—TO LET, IN THE VILLAGE of Flushing, L. I., five minutes' walk from the railroad depot, a handsome modern-built cottage, containing ten well furnished rooms; six lots of ground, nicely laid out; good garden, &c.; stable attached. Apply on the premises, to WM. HEALY, Franklin-place, or to Brady's Gallery, No. 785 Broadway, New-York.

FOR SALE—AT NEWARK, N. J., LOCATED ON corner South Broad-st. and Pennington-av., a handsome house, with all the modern improvements; has 12 rooms, with fine garden containing fruit, vegetables, &c., in abundance; price $23,000. For further particulars apply to HOMER MORGAN, No. 2 Pine-st.

PRIVATE DISEASES CURED IN THE shortest possible time, by DR. WARD & CO., No. 50 Lispenard-st., near Broadway, without the use of Mercury, loss of time or change of diet. Dr. WARD, from the hospitals of London, Paris and Edinburgh, is the discoverer of the only certain and reliable remedies for diseases of a private character. In 28 years' practice he has cured more cases of Secret Diseases and Wrong Treatment than all others combined. I can and will cure you in less time and at less expense than any other can or will, and those who have been robbed of their money and health, call; it will take but little money and time to restore you. If you have been unfortunate, call at once. By his special experience in this much neglected branch of medical science, he is enabled to guarantee a cure in the most complicated cases. Recent cases of Gonorrhœa or Syphilis cured in a few days, without change of diet or hindrance from business. Secondary Syphilis—the last vestige eradicated without the use of Mercury. Involuntary emissions stopped in a short time. Sufferers from impotency, or loss of sexual power, restored to full vigor in a few weeks, permanently and speedily cured by a new treatment. Persons at a distance failing to receive prompt treatment elsewhere, may get a permanent cure effected by writing a full diagnosis of their case, addressed to Dr. WARD, No. 50 Lispenard-st. Call, send, or write.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

By the arrival of the steamship Creole, at this port yesterday, we have New-Orleans advices to April 6th, though the news has been mostly anticipated via Cairo. Admiral FARRAGUT was in the city. The Era stated that the Liberals, under CORTINAS, had defeated VIDUARRI at Monterey, Mexico. French war-vessels were taking soundings at the mouth of the Rio Grande. CORTINAS had returned to Matamoras, and expressed his determination to defend it to the last extremity. A force had been sent to Bagdad, at the mouth of the Rio Grande, to oppose the French and throw up defensive works. Ten thousand bales of cotton had been ferried over the river at Eagle Pass within a month, and were being hauled down to Matamoras for shipment. Eagle Pass is now in our possession and this trade is stopped.

Another attack was made on Paducah, yesterday. A demand was made for the surrender of the place, which was refused, and one hour for the removal of the women and children. No further particulars received.

A messenger reached Little Rock on the evening of the 28th ult., from Gen. STEELE. On the night of the 27th Gen. STEELE's army encamped twenty miles from Arkadelphia — officers and men in high spirits. No obstructions on the way, except a few scattering guerrillas and mud holes. Gen. CABELL, with a rebel force of from twenty-seven hundred to three thousand cavalry, was reported to be at Caddo Bayou, five miles this side of Arkadelphia, to contest the passage of the ford. At this point, the bayou is about thirty yards wide and the water is low now. A sharp affair was anticipated. Gen. CARR, in command of the cavalry division, (late DAVIDSON's,) was in the advance. In all probability Gen. STEELE is in Arkadelphia now. It is reported the rebels are fortifying Monticello.

A dispatch, dated Pilot Knob, April 8, from Lieut.-Col. J. N. HERDER, commanding the post, states that Capt. MILKS, Third Cavalry, Missouri State Militia, stationed at Farmington, Mo., had just returned from Prairie-du-Racher, Ill., where he was sent, with some members of the Captain's company, after some bandits. He reports a complete success, having had a fight with a notorious gang of robbers, killed three and wounded several—among them the notorious bushwhacker and guerrilla chief, JOHN HIGHLY, who had long been the terror of this part of the State.

A portion of the Seventeenth Army Corps, from Vicksburgh, has arrived at Cairo, and is now encamped there.

FROM EUROPE.

The steamship Asia arrived at Halifax, yesterday, with two days' later news. The latest advices from the wrecked steamship City of New-York were more encouraging. Most of her cargo had been got out, and preparations to lift her were almost complete. If the weather remained pleasant she would soon be afloat again. The rebel cruiser Georgia is refitting in the Gironne, not being allowed to anchor in front of Bordeaux, in consequence of the port regulations excluding ships with powder on board. The correspondence between Secretary SEWARD and Lord LYONS, in the Chesapeake case, had been published. Both parties express gratification at the amicable settlement of the matter. In regard to the Mexican question, several French journals assert that the difficulty relative to the departure of MAXIMILIAN for Mexico will shortly be arranged. The Prussians had laid regular siege to Duppel. They opened their first parallel on the night of the 29th of March, without resistance from the Danes. The London Times gives partial credit to the report of an extensive attempt to revolt among the Hungarian troops arrayed against Denmark. The Austrian army broke up from before Fredericca in an unaccountable manner, and the disaffection of the troops may have been the cause. There was a report of a wholesale execution of Hungarian troops in consequence. The conference had been finally accepted by all parties, and hopes were entertained that it might lead to a settlement of all disputes, unless passions were too much inflamed by events transpiring before Duppel.

CONGRESS.

In the Senate, yesterday, 5,000 copies of the report of the Committee on the Conduct of the War, in reference to the late Florida expedition, were ordered printed. A bill to regulate commercial intercourse in insurrectionary States was introduced. The resolutions of the Legislature of the State of New-York, asking that troops who served honorably two years may be entitled to receive the $100 bounty, were presented by Mr. MORGAN. Mr. WADE called up the bill to enable the people of Nebraska to form a Constitution and State Government, which was passed. The Naval Appropriation Bill was called up, and after sundry minor amendments it was passed. Mr. SHERMAN reported a bill from the Finance Committee, to restrict speculation in gold coin, bullion and foreign exchange. The bill prohibits sales on time, or in any place except the actual place of business of the dealer, and upon no terms save those of actual delivery of the coin sold.

In the House, a proposition was introduced for night sessions, but laid over. The resolution for the expulsion of Mr. LONG was taken up and the day mainly devoted to the speeches of Messrs. COLFAX and LONG. The resolution of expulsion was finally withdrawn, and Mr. BROOMALL's resolution of censure was substituted and finally passed by yeas 80, nays 70—being very nearly a strict party vote. The resolution requiring that the Speaker should read the resolution of censure to Mr. LONG, during the session of the House, was laid on the table by two majority.

GENERAL NEWS.

The steamship Ariel, from Aspinwall, April 5, arrived at this port yesterday, bringing the California mails of March 23, and $269,000 in specie. The news from the Pacific coast is unimportant. The fear of war between Chili and Bolivia on the boundary question did not perturb matters much in those countries. A party of engineers, under direction of HENRY MEIGGS, Esq., the eminent railroad builder, had discovered a new and practicable pass through the Andes, in the State of Peru, which would admit of the construction of a railroad with no heavier grades to be overcome than those on which steam is already used in Peru. Capt. PYM'S British railroad project has been accepted by the Government of Nicaragua. Mr. DICKINSON, the American Minister to Nicaragua, is to have a conference of all the Ministers in the Central American States from the United States, for the purpose of having them unite in a protest against the French occupation of Mexico, after the style of the Ostend manifesto.

In the Court of Oyer and Terminer, yesterday, the trial of JAMES M. NIXON, the crippled soldier, charged with the homicide of BROWN, of the Pewter Mug, was resumed. Several witnesses were examined who testified to the facts of the shooting. The case will probably occupy the remainder of the week.

In the Court of General Sessions, yesterday, the case of DANIEL BROOKS, the negro on trial for the murder of Mr. KINLEY's bartender was submitted to the jury. At a late hour they had not returned a verdict, and the court took a recess.

Acting-Master CHARLES DANENHOWER, United States Navy, is now on trial at the Philadelphia Navy-yard, the charge being the killing of the mate of the British bark Saxon, upon the capture of that vessel by the Vanderbilt, off the Coast of Africa. The Saxon had on board goods which had been taken from a vessel captured by a rebel privateer, and for that reason she was seized. Acting-Master DANENHOWER was of the boarding party, and, it is alleged, shot the mate of the Saxon accidentally. He was exonerated from censure by a court of inquiry, which action was approved by the Secretary of the Navy, but the affair since then has been much discussed in England, and an attempt made in certain quarters to excite hostility against the Government in consequence of the shooting. The court-martial is understood to have been ordered at the request of Lord LYONS, the British Minister.

The funeral services of Mr. A. A. LOVETT, late Superintendent of the Peoples' Line of Telegraph, will be held at the Stevens House, No. 17 Broadway, this (Friday) afternoon, at 4½ o'clock. His friends are invited to attend.

Gold 176 ℔ cent. at Second Board of the Stock Exchange yesterday, as against 177⅞ same hour on Wednesday. Some of the Gold and Stock speculators attempted early in the day to run up the price ten per cent. to anticipate and break the force of the visit of the Secretary of the Treasury to the City. The highest price at the Board, 187½; the lowest on the Street, after this movement, 174 ℔ cent. The Railway speculation was 2@3 ℔ cent. down from Wednesday. The Secretary has directed the immediate payment of the May interest on the Five-Twenty Loan. He is also said to be realizing currency for part of his present large balances in London, and these movements, together with his continued sales of Gold to the importers to pay Customs, is likely to lighten the Money market for greenbacks.

Favored by the extraordinary inflation of the premium on gold yesterday, speculators in Domestic produce and General Merchandize went early to work, buying up everything that was available, especially in the line of Breadstuffs and Provisions, at much higher rates than even those current on Wednesday; but with the "tumble" in gold in the afternoon, transactions were sensibly diminished and the market generally closed with a strong downward tendency.

The Resolution to Expel Mr. Long.

Well, Mr. COLFAX has withdrawn his expelling resolution, and accepted a milder one as a substitute. His original attempt completely miscarried. We trust its fate will be a warning for all time against any other such effort in an American Congress.

Mr. COLFAX undoubtedly was prompted by the most patriotic impulse. No member is naturally more generous than he, or has less of the persecuting spirit. It was his loyal zeal alone that impelled him. But zeal is never a safe counselor. It always leans toward fanaticism rather than toward wisdom, toward headlong intolerance rather than toward calm justice. Doubtless there are thousands of patriotic men in this country who would have been gratified had ALEXANDER LONG been taken by the Sergeant-at-Arms, under the order of the House, directly after the delivery of that speech, to one of the corridors and hung by his neck until he was dead. The act would have relieved a good deal of honest loyal indignation. Nevertheless, just men would call it murder, and wise men madness. The excellence of the impulse is one thing, the righteousness of the act quite another.

The Speaker erred most grievously in originating such a resolution at all. He should have imitated the manner in which HENRY CLAY, one of his predecessors, dealt with similar unpatriotic utterances in the last war with England; or if it was not in the power of his lips to do that, or even to attempt to do it, then his part was to keep quite still, and perhaps occupy his thoughts with an incident that occurred in that House in the days when the inviolable rights of a Representative of the people were better understood. In January, 1811, JOSIAH QUINCY, speaking on the question of the admission of Louisiana, said: "If this bill passes, it is my deliberate opinion that it is virtually a dissolution of the Union; that it will free the States from their moral obligations, and, as it will be the right of all, so it will be the duty of some, definitely to prepare for a separation, amicably if they can, violently if they must." Mr. POINDEXTER called Mr. QUINCY to order, and requested the decision of the Speaker whether it was consistent with the propriety of debate to use such language, The Speaker, Mr. VARNUM, decided that the first clause of the sentence was admissible, but the latter contrary to the order of debate. Mr. QUINCY appealed from this decision, and it was reversed by the House. Mr. QUINCY's language was declared to be in order, and he went on to say: "I rejoice, Mr. Speaker, at the result of this appeal—not from any personal consideration, but from the respect paid to the essential rights of the people, in one of their Representatives." Mr. QUINCY had used language far more obnoxious than any employed the other day by Mr. LONG; and yet the House held that he was not even out of order. Not the faintest intimation was heard from the Republicans of that day—though party spirit never ran higher—that Mr. QUINCY ought to be, or could be expelled.

But after Mr. COLFAX had conceived his strange purpose, he was bound to submit it to a meeting of the Union party, or, at least, to some of the experienced men of the party. It was too grave a step to take without consultation. He declared, when he presented his resolution, that he acted simply on his own individual responsibility; but he should realize that it is not possible for him so to act. He was made Speaker by the Union party as its preferred exponent, and as such, a special importance and influence attach to whatever he says or does in the House. When he commits himself, he more or less commits his party. Whether this ought to be so or not, it is so; and that fact of itself should have caused him to take counsel. We have the charity to believe that very many who voted for the final resolution would not have done so but for an unwillingness to leave the gentleman who had been made their Speaker absolutely in the lurch. It is an absurd motive, but none the less effective, for all that.

The resolution of censure, as passed by a scant majority, was but a mere expedient to save appearances while backing out of a disgraceful position. But to our mind, the expedient was a very unworthy one. If the House had no right to expel, it had no right to censure. Both are penalties, the only difference being in their grade, and both impair the freedom of debate, though in different degrees. We deny the right to infringe that freedom in any degree. The security of a Representative in the decorous utterance of his convictions is an absolute inviolability; and his associates have no more right to stigmatize him on the record for so doing, than to expel him. The proper vote to censure, as the vote to expel, belongs only to "disorderly behavior." HARRIS used insulting language to the House, and for that justly received censure. Nobody pretends that LONG's language was disrespectful, whatever may be thought of its doctrine.

Mr. LONG having been declared by a majority of ten to be "an unworthy member of the House," it is, we suppose, expected that he will resign. We trust he will do no such thing. We hate his political creed as we hate Paganism itself, but a sacred principle of republican government is at stake in his person, and we want it maintained. Neither the majority of that House nor two-thirds of it have a right to drive him out of it, directly or indirectly. As he now stands, only his doctrine is detestable; let him yield one hair's breadth to this dictation, and he will be as detestable as his doctrine.

Taxation.

In the day of England's trouble the Government firmly pursued the policy of providing for the current expenditure by adequate concurrent taxation. Of the total revenue of the period of war with NAPOLEON and with the United States, about seventy per cent. was raised by the annual taxes, and the remaining thirty per cent. by loans, permanent and temporary. In the year 1815, the ratio was still higher; the expenditures reached five hundred and fifty-five millions of dollars, of which not more than one hundred and ninety millions were raised by loans, or as three by taxes to two by loans. Specie payments had then been suspended for 18 years, and gold was at a premium of from 30 to 41½ per cent. for three consecutive years. Is it wonderful that gold in our money market should command so high a premium as its range for some months back, while our revenue is raised at the rate of but one-sixth from taxes and five-sixths from loans? Need we look further for the cause of the condition of our money market, than the prolonged delay and the manifest hesitation of Congress to call upon the ample resources of the country for a contribution fairly proportioned to the outlay demanded by the sustenance of our vast forces in the field? In the face of such irresolution and postponement as the present Congress has shown, the credit of the Government is a marvel, and the gold price of its demand notes is anything but a marvel.

But the financial evils of the present exigency are not the end or the total of the mischief. All experience teaches that in the midst of great national wars, while the spirit of the people is up, and all the currents of industrial and commercial prosperity are running full and overflowing, taxes are cheerfully met and lightly borne; but, so soon as the vast market for supplies and demand for services which war affords is cut off by the return of peace, so soon as the great ends of the war are either lost or won, the burden of national debt is doubly burdensome in itself, and the enthusiasm that sanctioned its growth falls off into apathy and complaint. England has not in a century come out of a war on any other terms than a reduction of the rate and amount of taxation, borne cheerfully and easily while the danger impended and the necessity ruled.

Our war is distinguished grandly in many material points from all that have gone before it, but among the things in which it cannot be made to differ essentially, is the rule of policy, that in taxation the Government must strike while the iron is hot. Not only sound principle and wise policy alike demand energetic and immediate action in relief of our national funds and credit, and the incidental relief of the commercial markets, but the public, of every shade of opinion and feeling, calls for it imperatively. Congress alone is doubtful and derelict.

THE DRAFT.—This is the day on which the draft was appointed to take place throughout the country, under the President's March call for troops. It is postponed as usual—we suppose on account of the weather. It will now positively take place on the first of May—very positively. That being "moving day," it will furnish an excellent opportunity to catch recusant conscripts when they are out of doors.

This City is not greatly behind in furnishing its quota—we believe only some four or five thousand, while Brooklyn is only behind some fourteen hundred. We should think the two cities might easily supply this small deficiency by volunteering within the next fortnight.

Large inducements in money are offered to volunteers, either for the military or naval service. But the inducement that should be the greatest to every patriotic American citizen, is the opportunity offered to take a part in crushing out the accursed rebellion which threatens the ruin of our country. Lieut.-Gen. GRANT is marshaling the great host for that work. He is marshaling his armies for a campaign whose glories will, we believe, eclipse those of Vicksburgh and Chattanooga. What American will not, in future years, be proud to tell that he marched onward to Richmond under the banner of the Union, under the leadership of the most illustrious soldier of the age?

Banking and Bunkum.

We find the following choice morsel in the closing paragraph of the minority report of the Committee of the State Legislature on Banks:

> "The United States are rapidly multiplying their inhabitants, productive industry is ever on the alert for new channels, and our resources are far from being developed. Forty more years of peace, with our wealth and population increasing in geometrical progression, must annihilate our pecuniary burdens. The Old World will eventually repudiate her debts, incurred to sustain her effete civilization; but the dawning of the morning of the twentieth century of our era will witness our Republic ascending to the zenith of her glory, freed from her loads as miraculously as was BUNYAN's Pilgrim at the foot of the cross, and ushering in humanity to a renovated existence."

This sort of stuff used at one time to form a large portion of the regular Fourth of July orations in the rural districts. Even village spouters have, however, had their style chastened and their taste improved by the rough discipline and stern realities of the war. Bombast, rhodomontade and "blatherskite" are generally felt, even by those most addicted to their use, to be out of place when the cannon is booming and the hospitals are full. We think there is nobody who has not noticed a marked increase of sobriety in our political literature within the last two years. In fact, we hardly know where to look now-a-days for the old hyperbole, mixture of metaphors, extravagance, braggartry and rant with which we were all at one time so familiar. We were accordingly greatly amused to find a chip of the old block peeping out in this report from a minority of the Banking Committee, and it is rendered all the more curious and valuable by the fact that the report is on banking, of all subjects in the wide world, and is in principle and in sentiment thoroughly just and sensible. What there is in this theme to excite such an outburst of sublimity would puzzle us greatly if we did not remember that some of the grandest bursts of balderdash ever heard occasionally make their appearance in Common Council debates on the Tax Levy. There are some politicians who, when they stand up or sit down to discuss even an appropriation for a sewer, are always at a loss to know whether they had better talk plain prose, or throw their remarks into the form of an epic poem.

The writer of this report seems to have held himself pretty well in check during the earlier parts of his effort, but as he goes toward the close the "fine frenzy" gets the better of him, and the result is the ridiculous paragraph which we have quoted above.

We need hardly say that there is not the smallest indication that the "Old World will repudiate its debts." The stocks of all European nations are tolerably high; even Spain seems likely to pay up. Her civilization is not "effete" anywhere but in the brains of our buncombe politicians and banking poets. It is precisely the same civilization as ours, though laboring under a good many more trammels. Its achievements in art, literature and science every year are immense, and we in America are enormously indebted to it.

Whether "the dawning of the morning of the twentieth century of our era will witness our Republic ascending to the zenith of her glory," we cannot say with any certainty, nor can anybody else. But we are quite certain that we shall never reach the zenith of our glory, nor "usher in humanity to a renovated existence" until politicians learn to make a plain statement in plain English.

MAX AGAIN.—It seems that MAXIMILIAN has now a new trouble about his Mexican crown, and there has consequently been another postponement in his acceptance of it. The ceremony of offering the thing to him was to be gone through with on Easter Sunday, by the so-called Mexican notables; but in the meantime difficulties arose as to the presumptive succession to the Austrian throne. So we are again on the tenters as to the day of his emigration. It is a solemn thing to give advice to emperors or imperial aspirants; but we might advise MAXIMILIAN that it would be well for his neck if he could create sufficient trouble on the question of the Austrian succession to detain him forever in Austria.

THE GOLDEN BEAR.—Gold, early yesterday, was at a premium of 89; but in the course of the day Mr. CHASE, having come to town, took a walk down through Wall-street, and it at once tumbled till it reached 75. If such was the effect of Mr. CHASE's perambulating down Wall-street, we think he had better stay in town permanently, and take a walk among the bulls and bears every morning. Gold would possibly soon be at par—who knows?

POLITICAL.—The Lincoln Association held its regular meeting at Hope Chapel last evening. The attendance was not numerous, and the proceedings were informal. Dr. SHEPPARD remarked that he favored the reëlection of Mr. LINCOLN, because he thought it the most prudent and safe course amid the perils that were upon the country—it was, in fact, the reëlection of Gen. GRANT as Commander of our armies. Our military organization was, with Gen. GRANT at the head, the very best we could have. He believed the President and Gen. GRANT understood each other; and that Gen. GRANT would not permit himself to be made a political candidate until the war was over. Any change from our present arrangements would most likely be for the worse.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—GOUNOD's opera of "Faust" will be given here to-night for the last time but one. Mr. MARETZEK intends closing the Academy next week in order to devote himself and forces to the first performance and rehearsal of MEYERBEER's greatest work, "Les Huguenots." It may not be out of place to intimate mildly to the public that the prices of admission will be slightly increased for the next performances—we mean those commencing with the "Huguenots." Those who would pay little and hear much should go to the "Faust" or "Robert le Diable" performances.

NATIONAL ACADEMY OF DESIGN.—The annual exhibition of the National Academy of Design opens to the public to-day. It takes place at the Derby Galleries, No. 625 Broadway. There was a private exhibition of the pictures yesterday. About three hundred are on the walls of the establishment, representing fairly the various styles of our leading artists. We miss the usual number of important works, but, considering the calls that have been made upon our artists by the fair, and the various receptions of the season, the exhibition is both interesting and fairly creditable.

OLYMPIC THEATRE.—Mr. A. O. HALL's new version of "Fortunio," called "Loyalina," continues to attract good audiences to this bright and cheerful little establishment. It is a desperate resetting of an old and favorite work, adapted to the exigencies of the moment, and displaying reckless prodigality in the maker of puns and jokes. It is placed upon the stage in admirable style by Mrs. WOOD, who plays the leading character with extraordinary spirit. She is admirably supported by Mrs. SEDLEY BROWN and other members of the company.

The amusing petite drama called "Our Wife," precedes the burlesque, and introduces Mr. J. K. MORTIMER in one of his best characters. No one should miss seeing this admirable trifle.

CONCERT.—Mlle TERESA CARENO, the remarkable child pianiste, will give her first concert at Dodworth's Saloon, to-night, assisted by well-known talent.

WINTER GARDEN.—The classic play of "Medea" has been judiciously revived at this house, for the purpose of introducing Miss AVONIA JONES in the character of the heroine. It is one of her most favorite rôles, and the power and pathos that she infuses into it accounts for the reputation which the lady has achieved in Europe and wheresoever in America the play has been performed. The situations are of the intensest kind, and always of the sort that display the depths of a large, passionate and vehement womanly nature. Miss JONES realizes them with an earnestness that is frequently overwhelming, either by its force or its tender and appealing solicitude. Much as we were impressed with the lady's performance in "Judith," we must regard her interpretation of Medea as the best illustration of her remarkable powers we have yet had, and the truest of the character we have witnessed in New-York since the days of poor RACHEL. To-night Miss AVONIA JONES takes her first benefit here. "Medea" will be given, and the comedy of the "Honeymoon"—so that the public will have an opportunity of seeing the beneficiare both in tragedy and comedy. We trust this deserving artist will be rewarded with a crowded house.

The Ten-Strike of the Stage-Owners.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

The determination of the stage-owners to extort a dime per ride from the public is as unjustifiable as it is absurd.

Absurd, because untimely. It is done just when the public is rapidly becoming convinced that the stages are a nuisance, blocking up our thoroughfares, and causing an incalculable loss of time, and, consequently, of money, to the business community.

Absurd, because it is asking for an inferior mode of travel twice the price demanded for the more rapid and convenient passage in the car.

Absurd, because it asks twice the price of the rail roads for far less service. But one or two stage lines run higher than Forty-second-street, others go no further than Twenty-third-street, Thirty-fourth-street being about the average. To reach Thirty-fourth-street in a stage I must pay, forsooth, ten cents, while an Eighth-avenue car will carry me in about the same time to Seventy-first-street for half the money.

Unjustifiable, because the only pretence alleged by the owners is untrue, namely, that at six cents they lose money. Men do not continue a losing business, and the fact that several lines continue to run at five cents, when they might readily advance to six, is proof that the business pays even at five cents.

Has the public no remedy?

I think it has. The relief of Broadway is the chronic need of New-York. It can be effected by a simple process, namely, by withholding licenses from all stages running upon the street. This has not been done hitherto for two reasons: Because there was no railroad near enough to Broadway to accommodate the public; and because the public has had some feeling of tenderness for the stage owners in consideration of their waning business, and approaching extinction. The latter consideration, the proprietors have removed by their recent exhibition of greed. The former is cured by the addition of the Broadway parallel road to the other facilities of getting up and down town; and if the several avenue lines will at once double the number of their cars, and they will, of course, do so when they see the prospect of a corresponding increase of travel,—we can have done with the stages forever. We call upon the Mayor, or whoever has charge of the matter, to decline renewing licenses for Broadway stages.

It may be proper for me to add the assurance that the writer has no City railroad stock, and is not conscious of knowing any one who has. He is simply an

INDIGNANT GOTHAMITE.

A Cheap Day at the Fair.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

I would inquire through your columns if the managers of the fair do not intend giving the poorer class a cheap day. They will bear in mind many of our soldiers have wives, sweethearts, sisters and brothers, who would like to visit our great fair, who cannot afford to pay more than 25 cents.

P. I. L.

New-Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, Thursday, April 14.

The Senate, this afternoon, confirmed the following as Commissioners to ascertain the rights of the State, and repaying the owners of lands lying under water in the Bay of New-Jersey, and elsewhere: J. R. Wortendyke, Hudson; Francis S. S. Lathrop, Morris; James B. Dayton, Camden; James T. Crowell, Middlesex; J. L. N. Stratton, Burlington; John Lynn, Sussex. Both Houses adjourned sine die at midnight.

Railroad to Knoxville Completed.

LOUDON, Ky., Wednesday, April 13.

Trains passed over the bridge at this place this afternoon. The connection with Knoxville is now completed.

Lake Erie Navigation.

BUFFALO, Thursday, April 14.

Navigation is opened here. The propeller Equator, of the New-York Central Line, left for Toledo this morning. Boats will now run regularly.

MEETING OF THE CITIZENS' ASSOCIATION.—The meeting of the Citizens' Association convened last evening, at No. 206 Eighth-avenue, was largely attended. The President, Mr. LE GRAND LOCKWOOD, being absent, Mr. B. L. SOLOMON presided. The object of the meeting was to hear the report of the delegation sent to Albany "to oppose the passage by the Legislature of the Tax Bill of the City and County of New-York." Mr. SOLOMON, as Chairman of the Comtee, made a brief report. He stated as the result of the labors of the committee that over $2,000,000 had been saved to the tax-payers of the City. At the conclusion of Mr. SOLOMON's remarks, it was moved and seconded that the committee's report be adopted. The motion was carried unanimously. It was further moved that the committee be "continued." The motion was carried without a dissenting voice. After some further business of minor importance the meeting adjourned.

ARREST OF A HOTEL THIEF.—Detective Officer DEVOY, of the Astor House, arrested, Saturday afternoon, a noted hotel thief, named BENJAMIN GRAIG. The culprit had been loitering about the establishment for several hours, when the attention of the officer being drawn toward him, a close watch was kept upon his movements. The result was, about 4 o'clock, GRAIG picked up a carpet-bag belonging to one of the guests, and while he was in the act of carrying it off, was taken into custody by the officer, and conveyed to the Sixth Ward Station-house.

THE METROPOLITAN FAIR.

The Largest Crowd Since its Opening—The Sale of "Lady Woodruff"—Receipts $39,261 70—Knickerbocker Kitchen, &c.

Yesterday, the tenth day of the great fair, was one of the most successful since its opening. From morning till night the buildings were crowded to their utmost, and many were turned away, unable to gain admission. More than 30,000 people visited the fair during the day and evening.

The statement that the pictures contributed by the artists, and on exhibition in the gallery, are to be offered at private sale, is stated by A. M. COZZENS, Esq., to be incorrect, who advises us that they are to be sold at auction. Due notice of time of sale will be given.

RECEIPTS.

The receipts yesterday were larger than they have been for several days past, and are as follows:

Received for sales to 3 P. M.	$33,974 70
Received for admissions, Fourteenth-street	3,484 00
Received for admissions, Union-square	992 00
Received for donations	811 00
Total	$39,261 70

This includes the receipts of the Art Gallery and the Department of Arms and Trophies to the 9th inst.

The receipts of the day at Union-square Building were:

From Children's Department	$749 50
From Knickerbocker Kitchen	758 53
From International Department	1,972 50
Total	$3,480 53

The following gross receipts have also been reported:

Union-square to date	$40,447 63
International Department to 13th inst.	1,900 00

The celebrated trotting horse Lady Woodruff, presented by ROBERT BONNER, was yesterday sold for $1,800. She was resold, however, in less than ten minutes, to JAMES IRVING, for $2,000.

THE SWORDS.

The sword excitement is as great as ever; yesterday there were six hundred and seventy-seven votes cas cast, making the total vote to last evening at the Fourteenth-street buildin 8,395—

Of which Gen. McClellan received	4,370
Gen. Grant	3,979
Scattering	46
Total, as above	8,395
McClellan's majority	391

One gentleman, in a bold hand, wrote the following on the subscription book, making it cover one hundred votes, and for which he paid $100:

McClellan to Halleck.

"HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Aug. 4, 1862.

Clear in my convictions of right; strong in the consciousness that I have ever been and still am actuated solely by the love of my country; knowing that no ambitious or selfish motives have influenced me from the commencement of the war, I do now what I have never done before—I entreat that this order may be rescinded."

[The above is an extract from McCLELLAN's letter to HALLECK, written at Harrison's Landing, begging to have the order to evacuate the Peninsula rescinded, that he might make another advance on Richmond.]

TABLEAUX VIVANTS.

An entertainment which ought to bring into the treasury a handsome sum is advertised in our columns, to begin at Niblo's Saloon on Monday evening. There and then a series of tableaux vivants will be presented, and it is enough to say regarding them that Mr. H. W. CALVO, of the Academy of Music, will act as director, and that he will have the assistance of Mrs. JAMES B. COLGATE and Mrs. HENRY N. BEERS. GRAFULA's Seventh Regiment Band will furnish the music.

Union-Square Fair Buildings.

THE KNICKERBOCKER KITCHEN.

An odor of hot buckwheat cakes pervades the vicinity of the kitchen, and the visitor who desires to partake of some of the best of that description of griddle cake that were ever cooked will find that his nose has not deceived him. The ladies serve them up in genuine Dutch style. What if one does have to eat them with a steel fork, the respectable old Dutch burghers never had anything better, and it is doubtful if "Solomon in all his glory" had any forks at all. The ladies of the committee of the Knickerbocker Kitchen are succeeding in their enterprise beyond their most sanguine expectation as far as pecuniary matters are concerned; but people must remember that they cannot keep up their enterprise without large contributions of such things as they need for the table. The consumption of meats, tea, coffee, ham, &c., in the Knickerbocker has been so great that the stock is in danger of exhaustion. If ladies, like the members of this committee—the first in the City—are willing to devote their time and means, and to sacrifice their tastes and comfort, with an utter abnegation of self, for the sake of a noble charity, they should be sustained in their efforts by all who appreciate the claims of the cause in behalf of which they are laboring.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NUMBER FORTY-SEVEN.

Not the least interesting of the booths in the Children's Department is No. 5, which is well filled with every variety of fancy goods, productions of the skill and industry of the young ladies of Public School No. 47. Miss LYDIA WADLEIGH, the Principal of the school, and Miss FANNIE RUSSELL, one of her assistants, make rapid sales, but the energy and patriotism of the young ladies of the school prevent any exhaustion of the stock, and the tables always look fresh and tasty.

AUNT FANNY.

"Aunt Fanny," well known to all juvenile readers as the writer of Night Cap, Mittens, Pet Books, and other similar popular works, has put into verse a beautiful and true story of How Little Katie Knocked at the Door of Heaven. Messrs. SHELDON & Co. have presented five hundred copies of this brochure to the fair, and the "dear little children" to whom it is dedicated ought to see that its sale does not drag.

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

The entertainments of yesterday afternoon met with a most decided success, and the hall was filled with children. Although some apprehension was expressed that the extra charge for admission would be distasteful to some of the holders of season tickets, yet when they reflected that this department was designed exclusively for children, that they desired it should be surrendered to them only from 2½ to 5 P. M., and if adults were admitted without extra charge, the object for which it was intended would be to a great extent defeated, they generously resigned it to the young folks, who seemed delighted with the illustrative exercises in the light gymnastics by the pupils of Mrs. PLUMB's Academy of Physical Culture. The perfection and harmony of the various movements of the forty misses and masters in their exercises, were witnessed with admiration even by adults. Mrs. JAMES B. COLGATE is deserving of much credit for having procured the passage of a resolution by the Executive Committee, authorizing her to regulate the prices of admission to the entertainments, and thus securing to the children the pleasure that was in many instances denied them by the large attendance of adults. The rates of admission are as follows:

For children—no extra charge, a ticket to the fair being only required. For those persons necessarily accompanying children, 25 cents. For all others, 50 cents. The hall will be vacated at 2½ P. M., and the doors opened immediately afterward. To-day the famous Punch and Judy, by Mr. ABIETTA, from the Academy of Music, will delight the juveniles with its fantastic and comical performances. Mr. SEAGRIST will also, by the kind permission of Mr. PLATT, of the Hippotheatron, repeat his novel entertainment with his dogs.

MARINE DISASTERS.

Loss of the Ship Elvira, of Boston, in the Bay of Bengal.

BOSTON, Thursday, April 14.

The ship Elvira, Capt. ANDREWS, from Calcutta, for Boston, with a valuable cargo, foundered in the Bay of Bengal on the 20th of January, during a hurricane. The Captain and first mate went down in the ship. The remainder of the crew took refuge on the ship's house, which was detached from the vessel. Before the night of the first day five of them were washed off the house and drowned. On the fourth day two others died, and on the fifth day one died. The survivors remained on the wreck until January 27, when they were taken off by the French bark Clair, and subsequently landed at Point de Galle, Ceylon. Of the crew, 29 all told, only three were saved, viz.: W. M. H. PALMER second mate, of Southwick, Mass.; GEORGE D BLAKE, third mate, of Hyanniss, and JAMES ANDERSON, seaman, of Hamburg. The Elvira was a fine ship of 1,138 tons, and was owned by WILLIAM F. WELD & Co., of Boston. The vessel and cargo are largely insured in this city.

BOSTON, Thursday, April 14.

A private letter to Messrs. HOWES and CROWELL, dated Point de Galle, states that a French vessel had arrived there with four men picked up on a raft. They reported themselves as the survivors of the ship Elvira, Capt. ANDREWS, from Calcutta for Boston, foundered at sea. Capt. ANDREWS, his mate, and all but the above-named four went down in the wreck. The ship Elvira was insured for $55,000, and her cargo for $255,000. This insurance is about equally divided between New-York and Boston offices.

Damage to the Schooner Jennie Morton.

NANTUCKET, Thursday, April 14.

The schooner Jennie Morton, Averill, of Baltimore, from Matanzas for Portland, with sugar and molasses, struck on the south side yesterday; remained eight hours; stove deck load of molasses, and then proceeded without further damage.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARIEL.

$269,522 in Treasure.

The steamer Ariel has arrived from Aspinwall with the California mails of March 23.

The Ariel brings $269,522 in treasure, and Panama dates to the 5th. The Valparaiso dates are to March 17, and Callao 28.

The sloop-of-war St. Mary's was at Valparaiso, to leave soon for Panama.

Large transactions are reported in the Valparaiso market, except in copper, the excitement in which had subsided and sales become limited.

Chili was on the eve of elections, and the supporters of the present Administration were confident of a majority of two-thirds.

The rupture with Bolivia causes little feeling, as it was the conviction that no harm would come from it.

The following is the Ariel's

NICARAGUA.

Aspinwall, Tuesday, April 5, 1864.

Capt. Bedford Clapperton Trevelyan Pym, of Her Britannic Majesty's Navy, came on the train to-day, having arrived in Panama by P. R. R. Co's. steamer Salvador. Capt. Pym came from Costa Rica, where he has been to secure the consent of that Government to his grant of a railroad from Monkey Point on the Atlantic, to Comits on the coast of Nicaragua. Capt. Pym's contract passed the Legislature of Nicaragua the last week of the session.

The further news from Nicaragua brought by the Salvador, is that Mr. Dickinson, the American Minister, according to the statement of his friends in Comits, is to have a conference of all the Ministers in the Central American States from the United States, for the purpose of having them unite in a protest against the French occupation of Mexico, after the style of the Ostend manifesto. ROMAINE'S CRIMEAN BITTERS.

I have always refused to sell any of the compounds known as tonic bitters. I believe them to be generally injurious, and composed of deleterious drugs; but from a careful trial of the CRIMEAN BITTERS, backed by the certificates of Drs. Chilton and Pohle, of New-York, I have no hesitation in recommending them to my friends and customers. No other bitters compare with these in delicate and refined flavor and medical qualities of a tonic and alterative character. Their long trials in United States Hospitals, and privately, attest this beyond doubt. FREDERICK S. COZZENS, Agent Longworth Wines, No. 73 Warren-st., N. Y.

Morton's Gold Pens are now sold at the same prices as before the commencement of the war; this is entirely owing to the Manufacturer's improvements in machinery, his present large Retail Business and Cash-in-Advance System; for, until he commenced advertising, his business was done on Credit and strictly with the Trade.

The Morton Gold Pens are the only ones sold at old prices, as the makers of all other gold pens charge the Premium on the Gold, Government Tax, &c.; but Morton has in no case changed his prices, wholesale or retail.

Of the great numbers sent by mail to all parts of the world during the past few years, not one in a thousand has failed to reach its destination in safety; showing that the Morton Gold Pen can be obtained by any one, in every part of the world, at the same price, postage only excepted.

Reader, you can have an enduring, always ready, and reliable Gold Pen, exactly adapted to your hand and style of writing, which will do your writing vastly cheaper than Steel Pens; and at the present almost universal High-Pressure Price of everything, you can have a Morton Gold Pen cheaper, in proportion to the labor spent upon it and material used, than any other Gold Pen in the World. If you want one, see "The Pen is Mightier than the Sword," in another column.

U. S. 10-40 BONDS.

These Bonds are issued under the Act of Congress of March 8, 1864, which provides that in lieu of so much of the loan authorized by the Act of March 3, 1863, to which this is supplementary, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to borrow, from time to time, on the credit of the United States, not exceeding TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLARS during the current fiscal year, and to prepare and issue therefor Coupon and Registered Bonds of the United States; and all Bonds issued under this Act shall be EXEMPT FROM TAXATION by or under any State or municipal authority. Subscriptions to these Bonds are received in United States notes or notes of National Banks. They are TO BE REDEEMED IN COIN, at the pleasure of the Government, at any period not less than ten nor more than forty years from their date, and until their redemption FIVE PER CENT. INTEREST WILL BE PAID IN COIN, on Bonds of not over one hundred dollars annually, and on all other Bonds semi-annually.

The interest is payable on the first days of March and September in each year. The semi-annual Coupons are payable at those dates, and the annual Coupons on the fifty and one hundred dollar bonds are payable on the 1st of March.

Subscribers will receive either Registered or Coupon Bonds, as they may prefer. Registered Bonds are recorded on the Books of the United States Treasurer, and can be transferred only on the owner's order. Coupon Bonds are payable to bearer, and are more convenient for commercial uses.

Registered bonds will be issued of the denominations of Fifty Dollars, ($50,) One Hundred Dollars, ($100,) Five Hundred Dollars, ($500,) One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000,) Five Thousand Dollars, ($5,000,) and Ten Thousand Dollars, ($10,000;) and Coupon Bonds of the denominations of Fifty Dollars, ($50,) One Hundred Dollars, ($100,) Five Hundred Dollars, ($500,) and One Thousand Dollars, ($1,000.)

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their Bonds draw interest from March 1st, by paying the accrued interest in coin—(or in United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit.

As these Bonds are exempt from municipal or State taxation, their value is increased from one to three per cent. per annum, according to the rate of tax levies in various parts of the country.

At the present rate of premium on gold they pay over eight per cent. interest in currency, and are of equal convenience as a permanent or temporary investment.

It is believed that no securities offer so great inducements to lenders as the various descriptions of United States Bonds. In all other forms of indebtedness, the faith or ability of private parties, or stock companies, or separate communities only, is pledged for payment, while for the debts of the United States the whole property of the country is holden to secure the payment of both principal and interest in coin.

These Bonds may be subscribed for in sums from $50 up to any magnitude, on the same terms, and are thus made equally available to the smallest lender and the largest capitalist. They can be converted into money at any moment, and the holder will have the benefit of the interest.

The fact that all duties on imports are payable in specie furnishes a fund for like payment of interest on all Government Bonds largely in excess of the wants of the treasury for this purpose.

Upon the receipt of subscriptions a certificate of deposit therefor, in duplicate, will be issued, the original of which will be forwarded by the subscriber to the Secretary of the Treasury, at Washington, with a letter stating the kind (registered or coupon) and the denominations of bonds required.

Upon the receipt of the original certificates at the Treasury Department, the bonds subscribed for will be transmitted to the subscribers respectively.

Subscriptions will be received by the Treasurer of the United States at Washington, and the Assistant Treasurers at New-York, Boston and Philadelphia, and by the

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED.

No. 420 Sixth-av., New-York, Dec. 2, 1863.

I was deaf for several years, and hearing of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I was induced to place myself under his care, and I am now happy to state that my hearing was entirely restored after a short treatment. I was also suffering from chronic catarrh, of which I was also cured by the skillful treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I do but justice to the Doctor in stating that in treating me he displayed that skill and knowledge which have already procured for him such a deserved reputation, and that the principles which direct his system of curing Deafness and Catarrh are such as to render success certain, in my opinion. Many months have passed since Dr. Von Eisenberg restored my hearing, and it continues as good as ever.

CATARRH CURED.

READ!

I have been suffering for a long time from a severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were constantly obstructed with a pouring fluid. That frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, often attended with a fullness of my throat, great soreness, and a continual dropping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. may, indeed, say that I fee a new life. The treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful. It is in my opinion impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one sufferin like myself to place themselves under Dr. on Eisen erg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured.

Harlem, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over twenty-five years, and Dr. Von Eisenberg operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,
Harlem, 126th-st., between 2d and 3d avs.

No. 134 Allen-st., New-York, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

New-York, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.

READ.

New-York, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

TEN-FORTY GOVERNMENT LOAN.

UNITED STATES TREASURY.

New-York, April 4, 1864.

By direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, I hereby give notice that I am prepared to receive subscriptions on account of United States Bonds authorized by the act of March 3, 1864, bearing date March 1, 1864, redeemable at the pleasure of the Government after ten years, and payable forty years from date, bearing interest at five per centum a year, payable on bonds not over $100 annually and on all other bonds semi-annually, in coin.

Subscribers will receive either registered or coupon bonds, as they may prefer.

Registered bonds will be issued of the denominations of fifty dollars, ($50,) one hundred dollars, ($100,) five hundred dollars, ($500,) one thousand dollars, ($1,000,) five thousand dollars, ($5,000,) and ten thousand dollars, ($10,000,) and coupon bonds of the denominations of fifty dollars, ($50,) one hundred dollars, ($100,) five hundred dollars, ($500,) and one thousand dollars, ($1,000.)

Subscribers to this loan will have the option of having their bonds draw interest from March 1 or September 1, as the case may be, by paying the accrued interest in coin, (or United States notes, or the notes of National Banks, adding fifty per cent. for premium,) or receive them drawing interest from the date of subscription and deposit.

Upon the receipt of subscriptions, I will issue my certificate of deposit therefor in duplicate, the original of which will be forwarded by the subscriber to the Secretary of the Treasury, Washington, with a letter stating the kind, (registered or coupon,) and the denominations of bonds required.

Upon the receipt of the original certificates at the Treasury Department, the bonds subscribed for will be transmitted to the subscribers respectively.

A commission of one-eighth of one per cent. will be allowed to those subscribing for others or resale. The delivery of these bonds have commenced, and will be continued promptly.

No. 44 Exchange-place,
New-York, April 13, 1864.

In calling the attention of our friends and correspondents to the Pacific Quicksilver Mining Company, we beg to add the following statement, which is furnished to us from reliable sources.

The property of the Pacific Quicksilver Mining Company comprises the Cinnabar Claims of twenty small companies consolidated. The claims thus united, cover over three continuous miles in length of the Mammoth Ledge, in Napa County, California, about seventy miles northeast of San Francisco. The richness of the Cinnabar is proved by the assay of Prof. Kent, of the United States Assay Office; a specimen assayed by him yielded 69 6-10 per cent. of quicksilver. The quicksilver mines of the world are limited, the principal supply thus far having been drawn from those of Almaden, in Spain, Idria, in Austria, and the New Almaden mines, in California. The mines of the Pacific Quicksilver Mining Company give promise of richness equal to the best of these, and worked with ample capital, of equal success. The want of capital has alone prevented their earlier development.

Of the great and increasing demand for Quicksilver, it is quite unnecessary to speak; nor of the large returns made by the few known mines of Cinnabar.

Every new mine, of gold or silver, creates an increased demand; and the small cost of this great property, free from incumbrance, on the terms offered, viz., only $2,000,000, for the property, with $400,000 in cash on hand, places it in a most favorable position.

A number of specimens taken by John T. Howard, Esq., of Brooklyn, from various parts of the ledge, can be seen at our office.

Very respectfully,
STIMSON, FRONK & CO.

MORSE & CO.,
No. 24 William-st., New-York.
APRIL 5, 1864.

New-York, April 4, 1864.

I visited this Mine in the month of December, 1863, accompanied by Guido Kustel, the most distinguished Metallurgist and Mining Engineer on the Pacific coast, for many years the Manager of the Ophir Works, and author of a valuable treatise on the "Processes of Silver and Gold Extraction," recently published in California. My opinion of the value and quality of this Mine is based on information derived from this gentleman, and on my own observations at the Mine.

The Mine is situated in Arizona, about three miles north of the northern boundary line of Sonora, and five miles distant from the celebrated Mowry Silver Mines; it is accessible at all seasons of the year, either by the way of Los Angelos, Libertad, or Guaymas. But little work has been done in developing the mine; enough, however, to discover the width and extent of the lode and determine the quality and value of the ores.

Where the shaft is sunk the vein is from four to six feet wide between lime-rock and garnet, running east and west, and exhibits galena or sulphuret of lead, carbonate of lead, zinc-blend and copper-pyrites; the richest is the sulphuret of lead, assaying one hundred and fifty-five dollars per ton; the vein has been prospected about half a mile. Mr. Kustel, in a letter addressed to the San Francisco owners, says: "The San Antonio lode appears, where the shaft is sunk, a good wide vein of ore, easy to reduce by fire, and will pay on an average, according to the proportions of the different metals, from seventy to ninety dollars per ton."

I believe there is an abundant supply of this ore, and that by an expenditure of a comparatively small sum of money, the mine can be put in a condition to produce 40 tons per day; if this ore averages only $80 per ton, the gross product of the mine would exceed $3,000 per day; the entire cost of mining and reducing a ton of this ore will not exceed twenty dollars.

On the premises, about 200 yards from San Antonio lode, in a N. E. direction, there is a very rich copper lode, six feet wide; the ores which we obtained from this lode, considered a fair average, assayed 80 ℔ cent. of copper and $76 in silver. Miners can be obtained in any number in the immediate vicinity, at about $10 ℔ month.

The reduction works of the mine are three miles distant from the mine, consisting of a small engine and two furnaces. There is an abundance of wood and water for all purposes on the property.

I consider the San Antonio a very valuable Silver Mine, If worked with skill and energy, it will produce most satisfactory results.

$1,000,000 LOAN
OF THE
COUNTY OF NEW-YORK.

PROPOSALS FOR $1,000,000 SOLDIERS' BOUNTY FUND BONDS.

(Being the Balance not awarded on Bids for $2,000,000 opened April 2, 1864.)

Sealed proposals will be received at the Comptroller's Office until Saturday, April 16, 1864, at 2 o'clock P. M., when the same will be publicly opened, for the purchase of the whole or any part of the sum of One Million Dollars of the "Soldiers' Bounty Fund Bonds," authorized by an Ordinance of the Board of Supervisors, passed March 18, 1864, and by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New-York, passed Feb. 8, 1864, being the amount not awarded on bids for $2,000,000 opened April 2, 1864.

The said bonds will bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of May and November in each year, and the principal will be redeemable as follows: Five hundred thousand dollars Nov. 1, 1889, and five hundred thousand dollars Nov. 1, 1890.

The proposals will state the amount of bonds desired and the price per one hundred dollars thereof; and persons whose proposals are accepted will thereupon be required to deposit with the County Treasurer the sums awarded to them respectively.

On presenting to the Comptroller the receipts of the County Treasurer for such deposits, the parties will be entitled to receive bonds for equal amounts of the par value of the sums awarded to them, bearing interest from the dates of payments.

Each proposition should be sealed and indorsed "Proposals for Soldiers' Bounty Fund Bonds," and inclosed in a second envelope, addressed to the Comptroller.

The right is reserved to reject any or all of the bids, if considered necessary to protect or promote the interests of the county.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF NEW-YORK
No. 4 Wall-st., New-York.

DESIGNATED DEPOSITORY AND FISCAL AGENT OF UNITED STATES.

NATIONAL 10-40 FIVE PER CENT. LOAN.

By instructions from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated March 26, 1864, this Bank will receive subscriptions for the National 10-40 Five Per Cent. Loan, in coupon bonds or registered certificates, redeemable after ten, and payable forty years from date, in coin, and will allow to banks, bankers and brokers the usual commission of one-eighth of one per cent.

This loan bears gold interest, payable semi-annually, on coupon and registered bonds of $500 and over, and annually on bonds of the denominations of 50 and 100 dollars.

In subscribing, parties are requested to pay the accrued interest from the first of March to the day of subscription in coin, or in currency adding fifty per cent. premium.

The interest on this Loan is payable on the first days of March and September in each year. The semi-annual coupons are payable at those dates, and the annual coupons on the 50 and 100 dollar bonds are payable on the first of March

The Secretary of the Treasury closes his instructions in the following words:

On the above terms, the First National Bank of the City of New-York, of which you are the President, is authorized to receive subscriptions to the National 10-40 Loan, and it is hoped that its exertions—on the most energetic and active employment of which great reliance is placed—will be attended with complete success.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) S. P. CHASE,
Secretary of the Treasury.
To S. C. THOMPSON, Esq., President.

The coupon bonds will be ready for delivery early in April, and registered bonds about the first of May.

Remittances may be made in legal tender notes, National Bank notes, or in drafts, &c., par in this City, addressed,

FAIRS.

MARYLAND STATE FAIR

FOR THE BENEFIT
OF THE
UNITED STATES SANITARY AND CHRISTIAN COMMISSIONS.

The Maryland State Fair will be opened with appropriate ceremonies, at the Maryland Institute, in the City of Baltimore, on MONDAY, 18th of April, at 6½ P. M., a day ever memorable for the first assault and maltreatment of the soldiers of the sister State of Pennsylvania marching over the common highway of the Republic, to the defence of the Capital of our common country, and the prelude to the atrocities committed in our streets against the patriot sons of Massachusetts on the 19th.

Although her soil has been seared and furrowed by the thread of rebel armies, the daughters of Maryland will not yield to those of any State in placing upon the altar of their beloved country a tribute to the brave defenders of their homes and firesides. Although they may not reach the brilliant results attained in the favored cities of the East and West, valued in money, they will not concede to any a greater degree of devotion to the sublime labor of love exhibited by the agents of the Sanitary Commission, and its no less zealous companion the Christian Commission, on every battle-field. Not only has the soldier, bleeding and dying in defence of the eternal right of man to self-government, been assisted and comforted, but the wind of adversity has been tempered to the misguided men who have taken up arms to effect its overthrow.

Contributions in money and goods are earnestly solicited from our merchants, manufacturers, mechanics, farmers and others, and can be addressed to any of the undersigned, or sent to the hall of the Institute, on and after WEDNESDAY, April 13, where they will be received and taken charge of by the Hall Committee.

The various Express Companies will transport articles free of charge.

The programme of the ceremonies of inauguration of the Fair will be announced hereafter.

Tickets of admission to the main hall of the Institute can be had at the following places, on and after WEDNESDAY, April 13, viz.:

Messrs. Cushing & Bailey's, No. 262 W. Baltimore-st.
Messrs. Canfield, Bros. & Co.'s, corner Baltimore and Charles-st.
Mr. James S. Waters, No. 168 W. Baltimore-st.
Messrs. Chas. Reese & Co., corner Madison and Eutaw sts.
Messrs. Armstrong & Berry, No. 156 W. Baltimore-street, and at the Ticket Office of the Institute, on and after 18th April, and at following prices:

Single Tickets—For the first evening....$1.00
Single Tickets—After the first evening....25
Season Tickets—Good for the entire week of the Fair, after the first evening....1.00
Season Tickets—Issued to ladies having charge of tables, &c., and their designated assistants only, and good for the entire week, including the first evening....1.00

No season tickets are transferable, or allowed to be used except by those to whom issued. Ladies having charge of tables, &c., will please hand in, as soon as practicable, at the store of Messrs. Cushings & Bailey, and addressed to the "Joint Executive Committee," a list of names and the number of tickets desired by them, as above.

There will be an exhibition of rare and valuable Paintings in the Rooms of the School of Design of the Institute, for which season tickets will be issued at the above places for 50 cents; single tickets 25 cents. Other exhibitions, of Tableaux, &c., will be announced, as arrangements are perfected.

Arrangements have been made with the various railroad companies and steamboat lines running into the City, by which tickets will be issued (with admission coupons attached) at greatly reduced rates of fare.

The Public School Commissioners have announced a holiday to the scholars for the afternoons of Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22.

Articles purchased will not be removed until after the first evening of the Fair; by this feature an opportunity will be offered to all to see the rare and beautiful articles as first arranged.

A daily newspaper will be published and sold at the Fair.

Meals can be obtained at all hours at the Lunch Rooms, and also at the "New-England Kitchen," which is expected to be one of the most interesting features of the Fair.

The Music for the Fair will be under the direction of Professor Deems.

The Fair will be opened at 10 o'clock on each morning; the Drum Corps will beat the "tattoo" at 10½ P. M.—"taps" at 11, when it is expected that the Rooms will be immediately vacated.

MUSICAL.

CHICKERING & SONS

MANUFACTURERS OF GRAND, SQUARE, AND UPRIGHT PIANO-FORTES, No. 652 BROADWAY.—The superiority of these instruments has of late been amply demonstrated by the voluntary testimony of the foremost artists of the day, who claim for them excellencies of tone and workmanship hitherto unobtained by any other makers.

Mr. GOTTSCHALK's constant use of the NEW SCALE CHICKERING GRAND PIANO-FORTES has severely tested their musical qualities, and resulted in establishing the justice of the very flattering estimation in which they are held.

STEINWAY & SONS'

GOLD MEDAL GRAND AND SQUARE PIANOS are now considered the best in Europe as well as this country, having received the first Prize Medal at the World's Exhibition in London, 1862.
The principal reason why the Steinway Pianos are superior to all others, is, that the firm is composed of five practical pianoforte makers, (father and four sons,) who invent all their own improvements, and under whose personal supervision every part of the instrument is manufactured. Warerooms, Nos. 71 and 73 East 14th-st., between Union-square and Irving-place, New-York.

CALENBERG & VAUPEL,

Manufacturers of OVERSTRUNG GRAND AND SQUARE PIANO-FORTES. The very best and cheapest now in the market. Warranted in writing for five years. Please send for a circular.

PIANOS TO LET AND FOR SALE
ON INSTALLMENTS.

RAVEN & BACON,

Piano-Forte Manufacturers, Wareroom, No. 135 Grand-st., near Broadway. A full assortment of our well known PIANOS constantly on hand, warranted in every respect. Purchasers will do well to examine our stock and prices before making their selections.

MASON & HAMLIN'S CABINET ORGANS, FOR FAMILIES, CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS—Recognized by the musical profession as greatly superior to Harmoniums, Melodeons and all other small organs. [See our illustrated catalogue for explicit testimony to their superiority, from a majority of the most eminent organists in America.] Prices, $85 to $500 each.
CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—The great reputation which our Cabinet Organs have obtained, and the extensive demand for them, have induced dealers to advertise, in some cases, quite different instruments as Cabinet Organs, and in others to represent to purchasers that Harmoniums and other reed organs are the same thing. This is not true. The excellences of our Cabinet Organs, which have given them their high reputation, are the result not merely of the superiority of their workmanship, but also, in large measure, of essential differences in construction, which, being patented, cannot be imitated by other makers. From these arise their better quality and volume of tone, and unrivaled capacity for expression. Warerooms in New-York, No. 7 Mercer-st.
MASON BROTHERS.

PIANOS, MELODEONS, HARMONIUMS, cabinet and Alexandre organs, piano stools and covers, sheet music, music books, music merchandise, and all kinds of musical instruments, at wholesale and retail; second-hand pianos and melodeons at great bargains; new pianos and melodeons to let, and rent allowed if purchased; monthly payments received for the same; pianos tuned and repaired; cash paid for second-hand pianos and melodeons. HORACE WATERS, Agent, No. 481 Broadway, New-York.

STEINWAY GRAND PIANO—PATENT overstrung, magnificent tone, worth $1,200; will be sold for $800, as the owner is leaving the city. Address for two days only, D. VAN DER WEYDE, Cooper Institute, fourth floor.

PIANOS, MELODEONS, HARMONIUMS, wholesale or retail, to let, or by installments, on favorable terms. Peloubet's Harmoniums, superior to all, $95 and $120; with pedals, $175 to $450. J. M. PELTON, No. 841 Broadway, near 14th-st., New-York.

AN ALEXANDRE ORGAN, IN GOOD condition, cost $400, an excellent instrument for a church, chapel or public room, will be sold for a little over half its cost. Apply at J. & D. WALKER'S piano-forte warerooms, Astor-place, New-York.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

opportunity of being heard. He felt compelled to demand the previous question.

On Tuesday, Mr. ELDRIDGE had raised a point of order that Mr. BROOMALL's substitute for Mr. COLFAX's resolution, declaring Mr. LONG an unworthy member of this House, was not in order, the Speaker pro tem., Mr. ROLLINS, of New-Hampshire, declared the substitute in order. It did not propose to censure Mr. LONG for words spoken in debate, but for the publication of his speech in New-York, showing him to be in favor of the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, and aiding the traitors in arms against the Government.

The Speaker pro tem. declared Mr. BROOMALL's substitute in order.

Mr. ELDRIDGE, of Wisconsin, (Dem.,) appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The question being taken, the Chair was sustained—yeas 79, nays 65.

Mr. COLFAX said, as Mr. BROOMALL's proposition would accomplish a similar object, he would accept it for his own, to expel the gentleman from Ohio, as it was evident a sufficient number of votes could not be obtained for expulsion. He demanded the previous question.

Mr. COX, of Ohio, (Dem.,) wanted to move to lay the resolution on the table.

Mr. DAVIS, of Maryland, (Union,) gave notice that he should renew the original resolution of expulsion.

The question was stated, "Shall the main question be now put?"

Mr. COX demanded the yeas and nays.

Mr. COLFAX remarked that as delays were intended, he had better proceed with his remarks.

Mr. COX replied that he and his friends did not want to delay, but they thought on a question of such importance there ought to be a record of names.

The main question was then ordered to be put—yeas 75, nays 71.

Mr. COLFAX said the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. PENDLETON) asked on Tuesday, "Where are we?" He would answer. We are in the Capitol of the United States—of that Republic which still lives in spite of conspiracy and treason, of enemies open and covert, with or without arms in their hands, within and without our lines—and which, thanks to God and to our gallant soldiers in the field, will live as long as time shall last. At such a time and in such a place, with the enemy almost at the gates of the capital, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. LONG) declares that our country is dead and destroyed, and advocates recognition to pluck eleven States from our banner—to receive in that diplomatic gallery an envoy extraordinary in the person of MASON or BEAUREGARD, representing here a government founded on our own soil—and causing the heights of Arlington to frown with hostile batteries menacing our deliberations in this capitol. Mr. COX had called his course extraordinary. He had a parallel and a justification. That same gentleman (COX) announced in the same speech that his Democratic colleagues from Ohio had met in caucus to disavow the sentiments of his colleague, (LONG;) and, further, that he (COX) was authorized so to declare. It was as extraordinary that thirteen gentlemen of the same political party should deem it to be their duty to meet in caucus and authorize one of their number to publicly disavow the speech, as for him to offer the resolution. If that could be done for the interests of a party, why should he (COLFAX) be criticised for asking the House to solemnly repudiate the speech for the interests of the country?

Mr. PENDLETON, of Ohio, (Dem.,) remarked that he did not know that there had been a caucus, and that his colleague (COX) had no authority to speak in his behalf.

Mr. COX—I desire to say that as to the caucus of Ohio Democrats—though I was not present—eleven of my colleagues concurred in and authorized the statement that they did not agree that the sentiment attributed to my colleague (LONG) was the sentiment of the Democracy.

Mr. COLFAX, resuming, repeated that he had brought forward his resolution from an imperative conviction of duty, and in accordance with his right as a representative. As the occupant of the chair, he was the servant of the House; but on the floor, as a representative from Indiana, he was the equal of all others—no more, no less—and he would not have accepted the Speakership if he had to enter the chair tongue-tied and forbidden to speak for his country and constituents. If his own brother, under the stringent oath required, had made that speech, he would have pursued the same course toward him—not that he loved him less, but his country more. In framing his resolution, he had conferred with no member of this House. He took the responsibility alone. The only member to whom he did state his purpose was the gentleman from New-Hampshire, (ROLLINS,) a few minutes only before he requested him to temporarily occupy the chair. But he did confer with one life-long friend, and after he mentioned to him his purpose, his friend asked: "Do you not know that by offering your resolution, you will make yourself a target of attack?" He replied that he had counted the cost, and was willing, for the sake of his country, to become the target of attack. He would have offered the resolution if the next moment had driven him into private life. Before he proceeded to analyze the speech of the gentleman from Ohio, he desired to advert to something which had been said on the Opposition side. The gentleman from Ohio, (COX,) while pleased to speak highly of his fairness as the Speaker of the House, said that he had descended from the chair to the floor of the House. But he had an illustrious example in one whose shoe latchets he was unworthy to untie, but who had filled the seat the generosity of the House had given him; him of the lion-heart and eagle-eye—defamed by some while living, but beloved by all now that he had passed to the spirit land. Mr. CLAY, during the war of 1812, came down from the chair, not once, but frequently.

Mr. MALLORY, of Kentucky, (Dem.) supposed the gentleman alluded to the period of 1812, when the Speaker of the House descended from his position to reply to the remarks of JOSIAH QUINCY, of Massachusetts. But Mr. CLAY did not move a resolution of expulsion.

Mr. COX said that in the Congress of 1812–13, Mr. CLAY came down from the chair nine times to make speeches in one session, and six times in the next.

Mr. MALLORY—Did Mr. CLAY ever move to expel or censure a member?

Mr. COLFAX replied that Mr. CLAY's speeches were on the side of his country, and that statesman never hesitated about the words he used, which were far severer than any he ever used here.

Mr. DAWES, of Massachusetts, (Union,) called upon Mr. MALLORY to state what language JOSIAH QUINCY used to justify CLAY's speech.

Mr. MALLORY did not recollect the precise words. He recollected that Mr. QUINCY denounced the war as being causeless and against the interests of Massachusetts, and his constituents were opposed to it.

Mr. DAWES said JOSIAH QUINCY was one of the most venerated and distinguished statesmen of the land. He knew Mr. QUINCY was opposed to the War of 1812. But as a lover of his country he had no equal.

Mr. MALLORY said the gentleman could not get Kentucky and Massachusetts into collision.

Mr. COLFAX resuming, said if any one had remarked at that time that traitors should be permitted to plant their confederacy on our soil, he believed that Mr. CLAY, with his patriotic impetuosity, would have moved to expel the member from this floor. This was no gladiatorial arena, as called by Mr. FERNANDO WOOD, as it was when men with weapons sought to suppress discussion in behalf of freedom. That time had passed away. They were here as patriots, as representatives to discharge the duties committed to their charge.

Mr. COLFAX quoted some remarks attributed to Mr. WOOD, when the latter said it was not true.

Mr. COLFAX said he took it from the New-York Herald. He supposed that was good authority. If the gentleman said his Bergen speech was incorrectly reported, he would let it pass. His colleague (Mr. VOORHEES) had declared himself in favor of unlimited freedom of speech. If a man should rise here and advise the assassination of the President, would his colleague have advocated such freedom of speech? And yet the speech of the gentleman from Ohio had not only encouraged the assassination of the Republic, but also of the soldiers defending it. His colleague had quoted the inculcations of the Saviour. He (COLFAX) had been taught to bow to them with respect and authority, but found the Saviour himself prohibited free speech when he prohibited profanity. His colleague had said something about the Helper book. He (COLFAX) had been asked to give his name as recommending a book contrasting Northern with Southern agricultural prosperity; and he had found some pretended extracts from it forgeries. With that old charge before his district he was reëlected by 3,000 majority. Notwithstanding what had been said by the gentlemen who opposed the resolution he (COLFAX) contended that the speech of the gentleman from Ohio did encourage sedition and would stimulate such riots as had taken place in New-York and Illinois, and would be hailed with applause in Richmond and in the rebel camps, and would discourage our veterans as they prepared for battle. It would, if unrebuked here, justify JEFF. DAVIS and recognition meetings elsewhere. In the course of his remarks Mr. COLFAX said the presumed offence of JOSHUA R. GIDDINGS in 1842 was the declaration that Slavery did not exist in the ships of the United States on the high seas.

Mr. ROGERS asked whether Mr. GIDDINGS was censured or expelled?

Mr. COLFAX said Mr. GIDDINGS was censured, and under the previous question, but regarded it as a virtual expulsion and resigned. A widely-circulated paper had compared Mr. LONG to CHATHAM, and spoke of the resolution he (COLFAX) had offered as a duty, as a disgrace and outrage. He would retort on no one, but he wanted no nobler epitaph on his tombstone than that he dared to do his duty to his country according to his conscience. [Great applause.] He wanted the rules to be enforced, as gentlemen on the other side insisted, who did not like these responses. He had sat here when these galleries applauded for Slavery, and nothing but lowering brows and hisses for Freedom. Then there was only mild rebuke. He would rather have the "God bless you!" of some poor soldier's widow, or the love of the soldier for what he had done in behalf of a country for which so much was sacrificed or periled, than the applause of galleries crowded with talent, heroism and beauty. Mr. COLFAX then proceed to review Mr. LONG's speech, which, he argued, showed a complicity with treason and a willingness that traitors should triumph. The speech was an echo of JEFFERSON DAVIS himself, and throughout the whole of it there was but one syllable for our distressed and bleeding country. Alluding to rebel barbarities, Mr. COLFAX said there could not, as the gentleman (LONG) advised, be amicable relations with the rebels. No, Sir; the sword will be sheathed only in the grave of treason. If our Constitution is destroyed, as the gentleman twice proclaims, and if the rebels have a Government as he asserts, then the only Constitution alive was that framed at Montgomery. Mr. COLFAX here read and commented on various extracts from Mr. LONG's speech, which charged the inauguration of the war upon Mr. LINCOLN, which said the rebels would spill the last drop of their blood in resistance, and which declared that those forced to take the amnesty and oath of allegiance would despise the authority of the Government; that he (LONG) had ever since 1861 regarded the attempt to preserve the Government and retain our territory as mistaken; that we should not seek to extend our jurisdiction over hostile people; that our battle-fields were works of disunion and division; that the Republic was dead and destroyed; that our Government was completely overthrown; and that every vestige of our Constitution had been destroyed.

Mr. COLFAX asked, if so, how he could dare to swear to support it. If the Republic, Government, and Constitution were all destroyed, he must have felt his oath to be a nullity, and ought not to wish to legislate here.

Mr. COLFAX was commenting on Mr. LONG's recognition declaration when his hour expired, and he asked for a few minutes more, as was promised on the other side when he yielded to their interruptions and explanations.

Mr. CHANLER objected.

Mr. COLFAX—I ask no favor, and take my seat.

Mr. ELDRIDGE—I thought it was understood that the gentleman should have all his time.

Mr. DAWSON—I think the gentleman from Indiana ought to be allowed to proceed.

Mr. ANCONA—The unanimous consent of the House was heretofore given.

Mr. JAMES C. ALLEN—I am no party to the objection.

Mr. LONG appealed to Mr. CHANLER as a personal favor to himself to extend the courtesy to the Speaker of the House.

Mr. COLFAX.—No repenting concession from the gentleman from New-York (Mr. CHANLER) will I accept. [Applause.]

Mr. LONG, who had obtained the floor, said that he was very sorry that Mr. CHANLER had made the objection, and he (LONG) would now ask the unanimous consent of the House to allow Mr. COLFAX to print the remainder of his speech. He (LONG) trusted that his request would be granted.

Mr. COLFAX—I do not print what I do not utter.

Mr. LONG said that he would now speak but for the peculiar manner in which the debate had been conducted, and its importance to him individually. In entering the hall on Saturday morning, to his surprise, he heard the Clerk of the House in a shrill voice reading a resolution for his expulsion. He was still further surprised when he saw the Speaker of the House (COLFAX) had left his exalted position and moved that resolution—and he was not less surprised at that gentleman's (COLFAX's) fifteen minutes' speech in favor of his (LONG's) expulsion. He did not object to the gentleman (COLFAX) offering the resolution. He did not impugn his (COLFAX's) motives. He did not doubt his right to offer the resolution that he did. He (LONG) had, with a few exceptions, been treated with the highest regard and consideration by members, and, therefore, he had no fault to find. They had not impugned his motives or his honesty. For what he had said, he (LONG) was arraigned before this great and august assemblage. What was the sum of his offence? Was he fit to associate with gentlemen here? Was it that he had lost his own self-respect, and had done anything worthy of censure? For four months he (LONG) had occupied a seat here, and now this extraordinary charge was brought against him. Gentlemen on the other side had complimented him for the manner in which he (LONG) had conducted himself here. We have been called upon for an increase of taxes in addition to the present already heavy burdens, and, therefore, in his speech, he had considered the magnitude of this taxation and the question of war, and had claimed his right as the Representative of a free constituency to express his views. This was the sum and substance of his (LONG's) offending. He had gathered the materials of his speech already made for him by the statesmen of the old Whig party, who adorned the pages of our history. The materials were also furnished by prominent gentlemen connected with the Republican party. He (LONG) had quoted from President LINCOLN, from Secretary SEWARD, and from Secretary CHASE, men in authority, who have laid down the principles of the Government in time of war. He repeated that from these he (LONG) had drawn his conclusions. Some of his (LONG's) friends had taken occasion to put themselves in opposition to him, and the Republicans had also been very careful to do the same. He (LONG) asked gentlemen to approach the subject now before them with care. He might be in error, but his conscience and his judgment told him that he was not. He might not look upon our present condition in its true light. If so he was sorry for it. He had had the independence to express in this hall his deliberate opinions, and with great circumspection, and for this his courage and his manhood had been commended by gentlemen on the other side. This was his offence—no more—no less. If I am to be blamed for that, then the God of my being is to blame for thus creating me. He (LONG) repeated that he had declared his deliberate convictions before this House, and had quoted in his own support the views, and had followed the leadership of the distinguished gentleman from Pennsylvania, (STEVENS.) He (LONG) said at the time that he would take shelter under the broad mantle of the gentleman from Pennsylvania, (STEVENS.)

Mr. LONG, continuing, said: To condemn me you must be consistent. You must condemn your distinguished leader (STEVENS.) Be just though the Heavens fall. Rise above party. Make no difference in your action between a Republican and a gentleman on the Democratic side. Act above party if you must make a martyr. Censure us both if you intend to be consistent, if you intend to be just. I at least will shelter myself under the broad mantle of the distinguished leader of the Republican party in this House (STEVENS.)

Mr. LONG then read a note from a soldier, asking him to send him several copies of his speech, the soldier representing himself as fighting for free speech, free government and the Constitution as it is. He was ably represented on both sides of the Chamber.

Mr. COX moved to lay the resolution to censure Mr. LONG on the table.

This was disagreed to—yeas 70, nays 79.

The first resolution was then read, namely: That the said ALEXANDER LONG be and he hereby is declared to be an unworthy member of this House.

The resolution was agreed to—yeas 80, nays 70, as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Allen, Alison, Ames, Anderson, Arnold, Ashley, Bailey, Baldwin of Massachusetts, Baxter, Beaman, Blaine, Boutwell, Boyd, Broomall, A. W. Clark, Cobb, Cole, Creswell, Dawes, Deming, Driggs, Dumont, Eckley, Farnsworth, Frank, Garfield, Gooch, Grinnell, Higby, Hooper, Hotchkiss, Hubbard of Connecticut, Jenckes, Julian, Kasson, Kelly, Kellogg of Michigan, Kellogg of New-York, Loan, Longyear, Marvin, McBride, McClurg, McIndoe, Miller of New-York, Morrill, Morris of New-York, Amos Myers, Leonard Myers, Norton, O'Neil of Pennsylvania, Orth, Patterson, Perham, Pike, Pomeroy, Price, Randall of Kentucky, Rice of Massachusetts, Rice of Maine, Rollins of New-Hampshire, Schenck, Shannon, Sloan, Smith, Smithers, Starr, Stevens, Thayer, Thomas, Upson, Van Valkenburg, Washburne of Illinois, Washburn of Massachusetts, Webster, Whaley, Wilder, Wilson, Windom, Woodbridge—80.

NAYS—Messrs. J. C. Allen, W. J. Allen, Ancona, Baldwin of Michigan, Blair of Missouri, Bliss, Brown of Wisconsin, Brown of Western Virginia, Chanler, Clay, Coffroth, Cox, Cravens, Dawson, Dennison, Eden, Eldridge, Finck, Ganson, Grider, Hall, Harding, Harrington, Harris of Maryland, Herrick, Holman, Hutchins, Johnson of Pennsylvania, Johnson of Ohio, Kalbfleisch, Kernan, King, Knapp, Law, Lazear, Mallory, Marcy, McDowell, McKinney, Miller of Pennsylvania, Morris of Ohio, Morrison, Nelson, Noble, Odell, O'Neill of Ohio, Pendleton, Perry, Pruyn, Radford, Randall of Pennsylvania, Robinson, Rogers, Rollins of Missouri, Ross, Scott, Stebbins, Steele of New-York, Steele of New-Jersey, Strouse, Stewart, Sweat, Voorhies, Ward, Wheeler, C. A. White, J. W. White, Winfield, Fernando Wood, Yeaman.

Mr. HOLMAN, of Indiana, (Dem.,) said, inasmuch as the first resolution was adopted, the second resolution was of no particular moment, and therefore he moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. COLFAX was willing to withdraw it by unanimous consent.

Objections were made on the opposite side.

Mr. VOORHEES said it was time these disgraceful proceedings were brought to a close.

There was much confusion at this time. The second resolution is as follows:

That the Speaker read the resolution (the one already adopted) to the said ALEXANDER LONG, during the session of the House.

The motion of Mr. HOLMAN was laid on the table—71 against 69.

Mr. COLFAX then moved the previous question on the preamble under the operation of which it was agreed to.

The preamble sets forth, substantially, that ALEXANDER LONG, a Representative from the Second District of Ohio, by his open declaration in the National Capitol, and by publication in New-York, has shown himself to be in favor of the recognition of the so-called Confederacy, now trying to establish itself on the ruins of the country; that, by giving aid and comfort to the enemy in their destructive practices and to the traitors against the Government within our borders, by assurances of their success, and affirmations of the justice of their cause, and that such conduct is incompatible with his duty as a member of this body.

The above was agreed to by the following vote—78 to 63:

YEAS—Messrs. Alley, Allison, Ames, Anderson, Arnold, Ashley, Bailey, Baldwin of Massachusetts, Baxter, Beaman, Blaine, Boutwell, Boyd, Broomall, A. W. Clark, Cobb, Cole, Creswell, Dawes, Driggs, Dumont, Eckley, Frank, Garfield, Gooch, Grinnell, Higby, Hooper, Hotchkiss, Hubbard of Connecticut, Jenckes, Julian, Kasson, Kelly, Kellogg of Michigan, Kellogg of New-York, Loan, Longyear, Marvin, McBride, McClurg, McIndoe, Miller of New-York, Morrill, Morris of New-York, Amos Meyers, Leonard, Meyers, Norton, Charles O'Neill, Orth, Patterson, Perham, Pike, Rice of Massachusetts, Rice of Maine, Rollins of New-Hampshire, Schenck, Shannon, Sloan, Smith, Smithers, Starr, Stevens, Thayer, Thomas, Upson, Van Valkenburgh, Washburne of Illinois, Washburne of Massachusetts, Webster, Whaley, Wilder, Wilson, Windom, Woodbridge.

NAYS—Messrs. James C. Allen, William J. Allen, Ancona, Baldwin of Michigan, Bliss, Brown of Wisconsin, Brown of Western Virginia, Chanler, Clay, Coffroth, Cox, Dawson, Dennison, Eden, Eldridge, Fink, Ganson, Grider, Hall, Harding, Harris of Maryland, Herrick, Holman, Hutchins, Johnson of Ohio, Kalbfleisch, Kernan, Law, Lazear, Marcy, McDowell, McKinney, Miller of Pennsylvania, Morris of Ohio, Morrison, Nelson, Noble, Odell, O'Neill of Ohio, Pendleton, Perry, Pruyn, Radford, Randall of Pennsylvania, Robinson, Rogers, Rollins of Missouri, Ross, Scott, Stebbins, Steele of New-York, Steele of New-Jersey, Strouse, Stuart, Voorhees, Elijah Ward, Wheeler, Chilton A. White, James W. White, Winfield, Fernando Wood, Yeaman.

Mr. FENTON stated that he had paired with Mr. WADSWORTH, of Kentucky.

At a quarter to six o'clock the House adjourned.

FROM ALBANY.

ALBANY, Thursday, April 14.

The Canal Commissioners have resolved to allow boats on the Erie and Oswego Canals to draw six feet of water after the 1st of June.

The Canal Board, by a tie vote, has resolved not to recommend the enlargement of the canal locks to gunboat capacity.

The New-York Tax-payers' Committee had a hearing this evening before the Senate Committee on Cities. Among those present were Robert Rosevelt, Morris Ketchum, John Jacob Astor, Jr., Isaac N. Phelps, Wm. M. Vermilye, Robert B. Rosevelt, and some twenty others.

Judge EDMONDS appeared for the tax-payers. He stated that the increase in wealth in the City of New-York since 1855 was twenty per cent., in population forty-seven per cent., and in taxation sixty per cent. He recommended as a remedy the confining of the power of the Common Council strictly to objects for which the taxes are authorized, and the creation of a commission unconnected with the City Government to examine annually all expenditures; to fund the Union Defence Redemption Debt, and to reduce the items for schools, streets, advertising, &c. He closed by predicting a repetition of the July riots in the City of New-York, unless justice was done to the tax-payers in the matter of taxation.

Senator ANDREWS, Chairman of the Committee on Cities, reminded the petitioners that their bill was not before them, being still in the Assembly. He expressed regret that the tax-payers should wait until the last days of the session, before attending to this matter, instead of commencing earlier and probing deeper for the evil of which they complain, which is only an excrescence. He added that the bill was not likely to reach the Senate for several days.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, Thursday, April 14.

BILLS REPORTED.

Relative to the Long Island College Hospital.

Incorporating the Home for Disabled Soldiers.

The bill relative to piers used by the Delaware and Raritan Canal Company was recommitted.

Mr. BAILEY reported that the Conference Committee on the Soldiers' Voting Bill could not agree.

The committee was therefore discharged.

The point of disagreement is, whether Inspectors of Election only or any other citizen, may receive through mail the ballot of the soldier.

Mr. FOLGER stated that he had been informed this morning that HAWLEY D. CLAPP is to be tried by a military commission.

Mr. MURPHY moved that the statement be entered on the journal.

Mr. FOLGER—With the additional statement, that he is to be tried as a camp-follower.

This was carried.

Mr. FIELDS moved that the Governor be requested to correspond with the Federal authorities to the end that Mr. CLAPP may be tried in a civil court in this State.

Mr. COOK and Mr. FOLGER opposed the motion, on the ground that the alleged offences were committed within the military lines.

Mr. MURPHY supported the resolution, contending that the alleged offences were against the laws of this State, in connection with the local bounties paid by the City of New-York, and not within the military cognizance of the United States.

Mr. MUNGER was not prepared to concur in the conclusions of Gen. DIX, and moved to refer the subject to the Judiciary Committee.

The motion was carried.

Mr. BEACH introduced Mr. INGRAHAM's Assembly Bill, incorporating the Metropolitan Market of New-York.

The bills for the extension of the Chenango Canal, and for the improvement of the Champlain Canal, were ordered to a third reading. Adjourned.

ASSEMBLY.

ALBANY, Thursday, April 14.

The bill making appropriations to certain charitable institutions was passed.

The Conference Committee on the Soldiers' Voting Bill failing to agree with the Senate's Committee, a new Committee was asked for.

A long debate ensued upon this, after which the Senate's amendments were concurred in. Recess.

EVENING SESSION.

BILLS PASSED.

Relative to wills.

Relative to real estate belonging to lunatics.

Conferring additional powers on Marshals in New-York.

Mr. LIPPETT announced the death of Hon. DANIEL F. KELLOGG, Member from Madison County, who died on the 11th inst. The customary resolutions of respect were adopted and the Assembly adjourned.

The East Tennessee Convention.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Wednesday, April 13.

The Greenville Convention of 1861 reassembled yesterday at the Court-house. About 160 delegates reported in person, representing 22 counties. The President T. A. R. NELSON, on opening the convention, made an explanatory speech and resigned the chair. WILLIAM HESSKET was chosen President.

Some exciting debate arose on a motion to appoint a committee on credentials, with power to determine the loyalty of delegates. The whole matter was tabled, and a business committee of one from each county was appointed, which, up to noon, to-day, has not been able to agree and report resolutions. The disturbing question is whether the President's terms shall be adopted as a basis of readmitting Tennessee as a Free State.

ANDY JOHNSON yesterday made a strong emancipation speech, and a flagstaff was erected on the spot where the rebels destroyed the old liberty pole in 1861.

From Colorado.

DENVER CITY, Thursday, April 14.

A detachment of the First Colorado cavalry had a fight with a party of Cheyennes on the north side of Platte River, near Fremont's Orchard, 85 miles east of here, on the State Road, on the 12th inst. Two soldiers were killed and four wounded. Several of the Indians were killed.

Strong detachments of troops have been sent against the Indians in various directions.

Some uneasiness is caused by he conduct of the Sioux, Arrapahoes and Cheyennes.

The Rhode Island Election.

PROVIDENCE, Thursday, April 14,

Block Island has been heard from after three weeks interruption of communication, JAMES Y. SMITH, for Governor, received 80 votes. No other candidate was voted for. This secures his election, according to the Journal's figures, by 151 majority.

The Ten-Forty Loan at Boston.

BOSTON, Thursday, April 14.

The subscriptions to the ten-forty loan at the Second National Bank of Boston to-day, amount to $515,000.

INDESTRUCTIBLE FRAGRANCE.—The living breath of the odoriferous Cereus Grandiflora, as it exhales from that magnificent flower in the gardens of Brazil, is concentrated and rendered permanent in PHALON & SON's extract of the "Night Blooming Cereus," a perfume for the handkerchief, which clings to whatever it touches for days and weeks.—St. Louis Republican.

We can cordially commend to our readers this new story, "CUDJO's CAVE." It will prove of absorbing interest to them. The characters in it are drawn with wonderful skill. We have had no story of this war that equals it in interest.—Rural New-Yorker.

GOLD ABOVE PAR!

Our metallic currency now commands above fifty per cent. premium. The GOLDEN BITTERS prepared by HUBBEL & CO., are a still greater percentage in value above all other bitters, by whomsoever prepared. These Bitters are a sure remedy for dyspepsia, and also for liver complaints and jaundice. They are drugged with no mineral substance, and contain the purest of the bitter herbs known to botanists, while the "spirit" in which they are preserved is warranted to be of the purest and best of imported Jamaica rum.

The fact that our best physicians use the Bitters extensively in their practice, and recommend them as the best preparation they can prescribe to their patrons for the cases alluded to, and for lost of appetite and nervous derangement, warrants us in naming the GOLDEN BITTERS as the safest and best tonic yet discovered. Many varieties of bitters are advertised, but experience teaches that the GOLDEN BITTERS is the tonic most worthy the public confidence. The Bitters are prepared at the extensive laboratory of GEO. C. HUBBEL & CO., Hudson, N. Y., and are for sale in this City by S. O. GLEASON, D. W. JONES and R. S. and G. DRAKE, and by most other respectable druggists and wholesale merchants throughout the country.—Troy Daily Press.

Capt. Johnson, of schr. Jas. Douglass, abandoned at sea, reports having experienced very heavy weather from the time he left Harbor Island until he was picked up. Shifted cargo, and sprung a leak; was obliged to cut away the mainmast, which, in falling, carried the foremast with it. The J. D. was 74 tons burden, belonged and was owned at Nassau. Was from Harbor Island for New-York, with a cargo of fruit.

RETURNED.—The steamship Labuan, hence for Liverpool, cleared 23d by Messrs. Funch, Meincke & Wendt, of this City, returned yesterday for repairs. From the first night out of port she has had a succession of heavy gales, during which she shipped many heavy seas, one of which washed away the bulkheads of the poop and forecastle, stove the bulwarks on the starboard side, washed away one boat and stove the others, filled the engine-room and disabled the machinery. After proceeding as far as lon. 60, concluded to return. On 13th, when southward of this port, fell in with the steamship Thomas A. Scott, from New-Orleans for New-York. Requiring assistance, took her in tow. After supplying her with provisions, when off the Highlands, the hawser was cut on board the Scott, and a tug employed to bring her to the City.

RETURNED.—Ship E. C. Scranton, Magna, hence March 19 for Liverpool, having, March 23 and 24 last, lat. 38, lon. 69, experienced a heavy gale from E. N. E. to E. S. E.; while lying to, under reefed spanker and main spencer, was knocked on her beam ends, shifting cargo, and sprung a leak, stove bulwarks, &c.; 24th, bore up for New-York, with three feet of water in the hold, and pumps choked with grain; was obliged to throw considerable of the cargo overboard to right her. Since, have experienced a succession of very heavy E. and N. E. gales; was blown south of the Gulf; crossed the Gulf again in lat. 36 30; lost sails, &c. Ship is now leaking very badly.

UNIVERSAL
AND

THE RESTORER

Will certainly restore the hair. It makes no difference how long you have been bald or what produced it. We have not seen or heard of a single case of failure—and we have the names of parties to whom we are at liberty to refer, who were bald from 14 to 25 years. And we can also speak with the same certainty for its changing gray hair back to its original color.

The HAIR DRESSING is undoubtedly the very best for clensing the scalp of all impurities, and makes the hair dark, soft, glossy and beautiful, disposing the hair to remain in any desired position.

It has been from time immemorial the object of philanthropists to find some remedy for the ills of life, and scientific skill has for ages explored every avenue in order to discover the hidden secret. It has been, however, reserved for modern science to bring before the world the great destroyer of disease, and in HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS are concentrated all those virtues which tend to promote healthy and vigorous life. Unlike the generality of bitters, they are not an alcoholic mixture, but a pure tonic, composed entirely of vegetable substances. They are a positive cure for

It is, on the contrary, world wide, and the triumphs of this article have blessed alike the rich and the poor, while like the snow that falls gently on the earth, so this friend of mankind causes its blessing to descend upon the suffering and afflicted. Its virtues are known in every quarter of the inhabitable globe, and the wonderful cures which it is daily performing have won for it the highest post in the temple of science. With such recommendations, backed by incontestible and undoubted testimonials from those who have experienced its curative properties, giving to the public no assertion but what has passed through the crucible of truth, and supported by an array of splendid and hitherto unknown triumphs, what wonder is it that thousands rush to it for relief in the hour of danger.

From John B. Wickersham, Esq., firm of Wickersham & Hutchison, the celebrated manufacturers of fancy iron works, No. 259 Canal-st.:

* * * * *

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz: That of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhœa.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely eradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific, and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly, yours, JOHN B. WICKERSHAM.

From Julius Lee, Esq., firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Chesnut-st., Philadelphia:

FEBRUARY 8, 1864.

MESSRS. JONES & EVANS—GENTLEMEN: My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefited by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else has failed. Yours truly, JULIUS LEE.

From that well known citizen, the

HON. JACOB BROOM:

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7, 1863.

GENTLEMEN: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of "Hoofland's German Bitters" in my family, I have no hesitation whatever in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia, of about thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequaled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, No. 1,707 Spruce-st.

The following well-known reverend gentlemen have acknowledged in writing the great benefits they have received from the use of these Bitters. Such testimony must certainly convince the most sceptical:
